Florida State University President, Robert Strozier.

The President

Dr. Robert M. Strozier

One of the foremost educators in the country today, Dr. Strozier came to Florida State from the University of Chicago where he was Dean of Students.

Originally from McRae, Georgia, President Strozier married the former Margaret Burnett of Denver, Colorado. The Stroziers have three children: Robert, Jr., a 1957 graduate from the University of Chicago High School; Charles, 13; and Ann, 10, both of whom are students in the University School.

At present, Dr. Strozier is a consultant to the United States State Department on the Educational Exchange of Students, a member of the Board of the International House of Chicago, and President of the International House Association. In addition, he is Chairman of the Fellowship Committee of the LaFayette Foundation (a private organization which awards fellowships to French Students for study in the U.S.), and a member of the Executive Committee of the National Association of Deans and Advisors to Men.

The current year has marked a memorable chapter in FSU History. The faculty and student body anticipate future success under President Strozier with enthusiasm and confidence.

Getting acquainted with his new office, President Strozier looks over the day's work.

Governor LeRoy Collins

LeROY COLLINS

LeRoy Collins, Florida's first governor to be elected for two consecutive terms, took office in 1954 to serve the final years of the unexpired term of the late Governor Dan McCarty.

Governor Collins became, in addition, the first Florida candidate for the governorship to win a first-primary victory, and was re-elected for a four year term by a record vote. His political experience prior to this includes eighteen years of service in the State Legislature.

Under the leadership of Governor Collins, Florida has greatly promoted educational advancement, peaceful uses of nuclear energy and has expanded agricultural and industrial research. The state economy, under his leadership, is growing toward a balance on the "three sturdy legs of industry, agriculture and tourism."

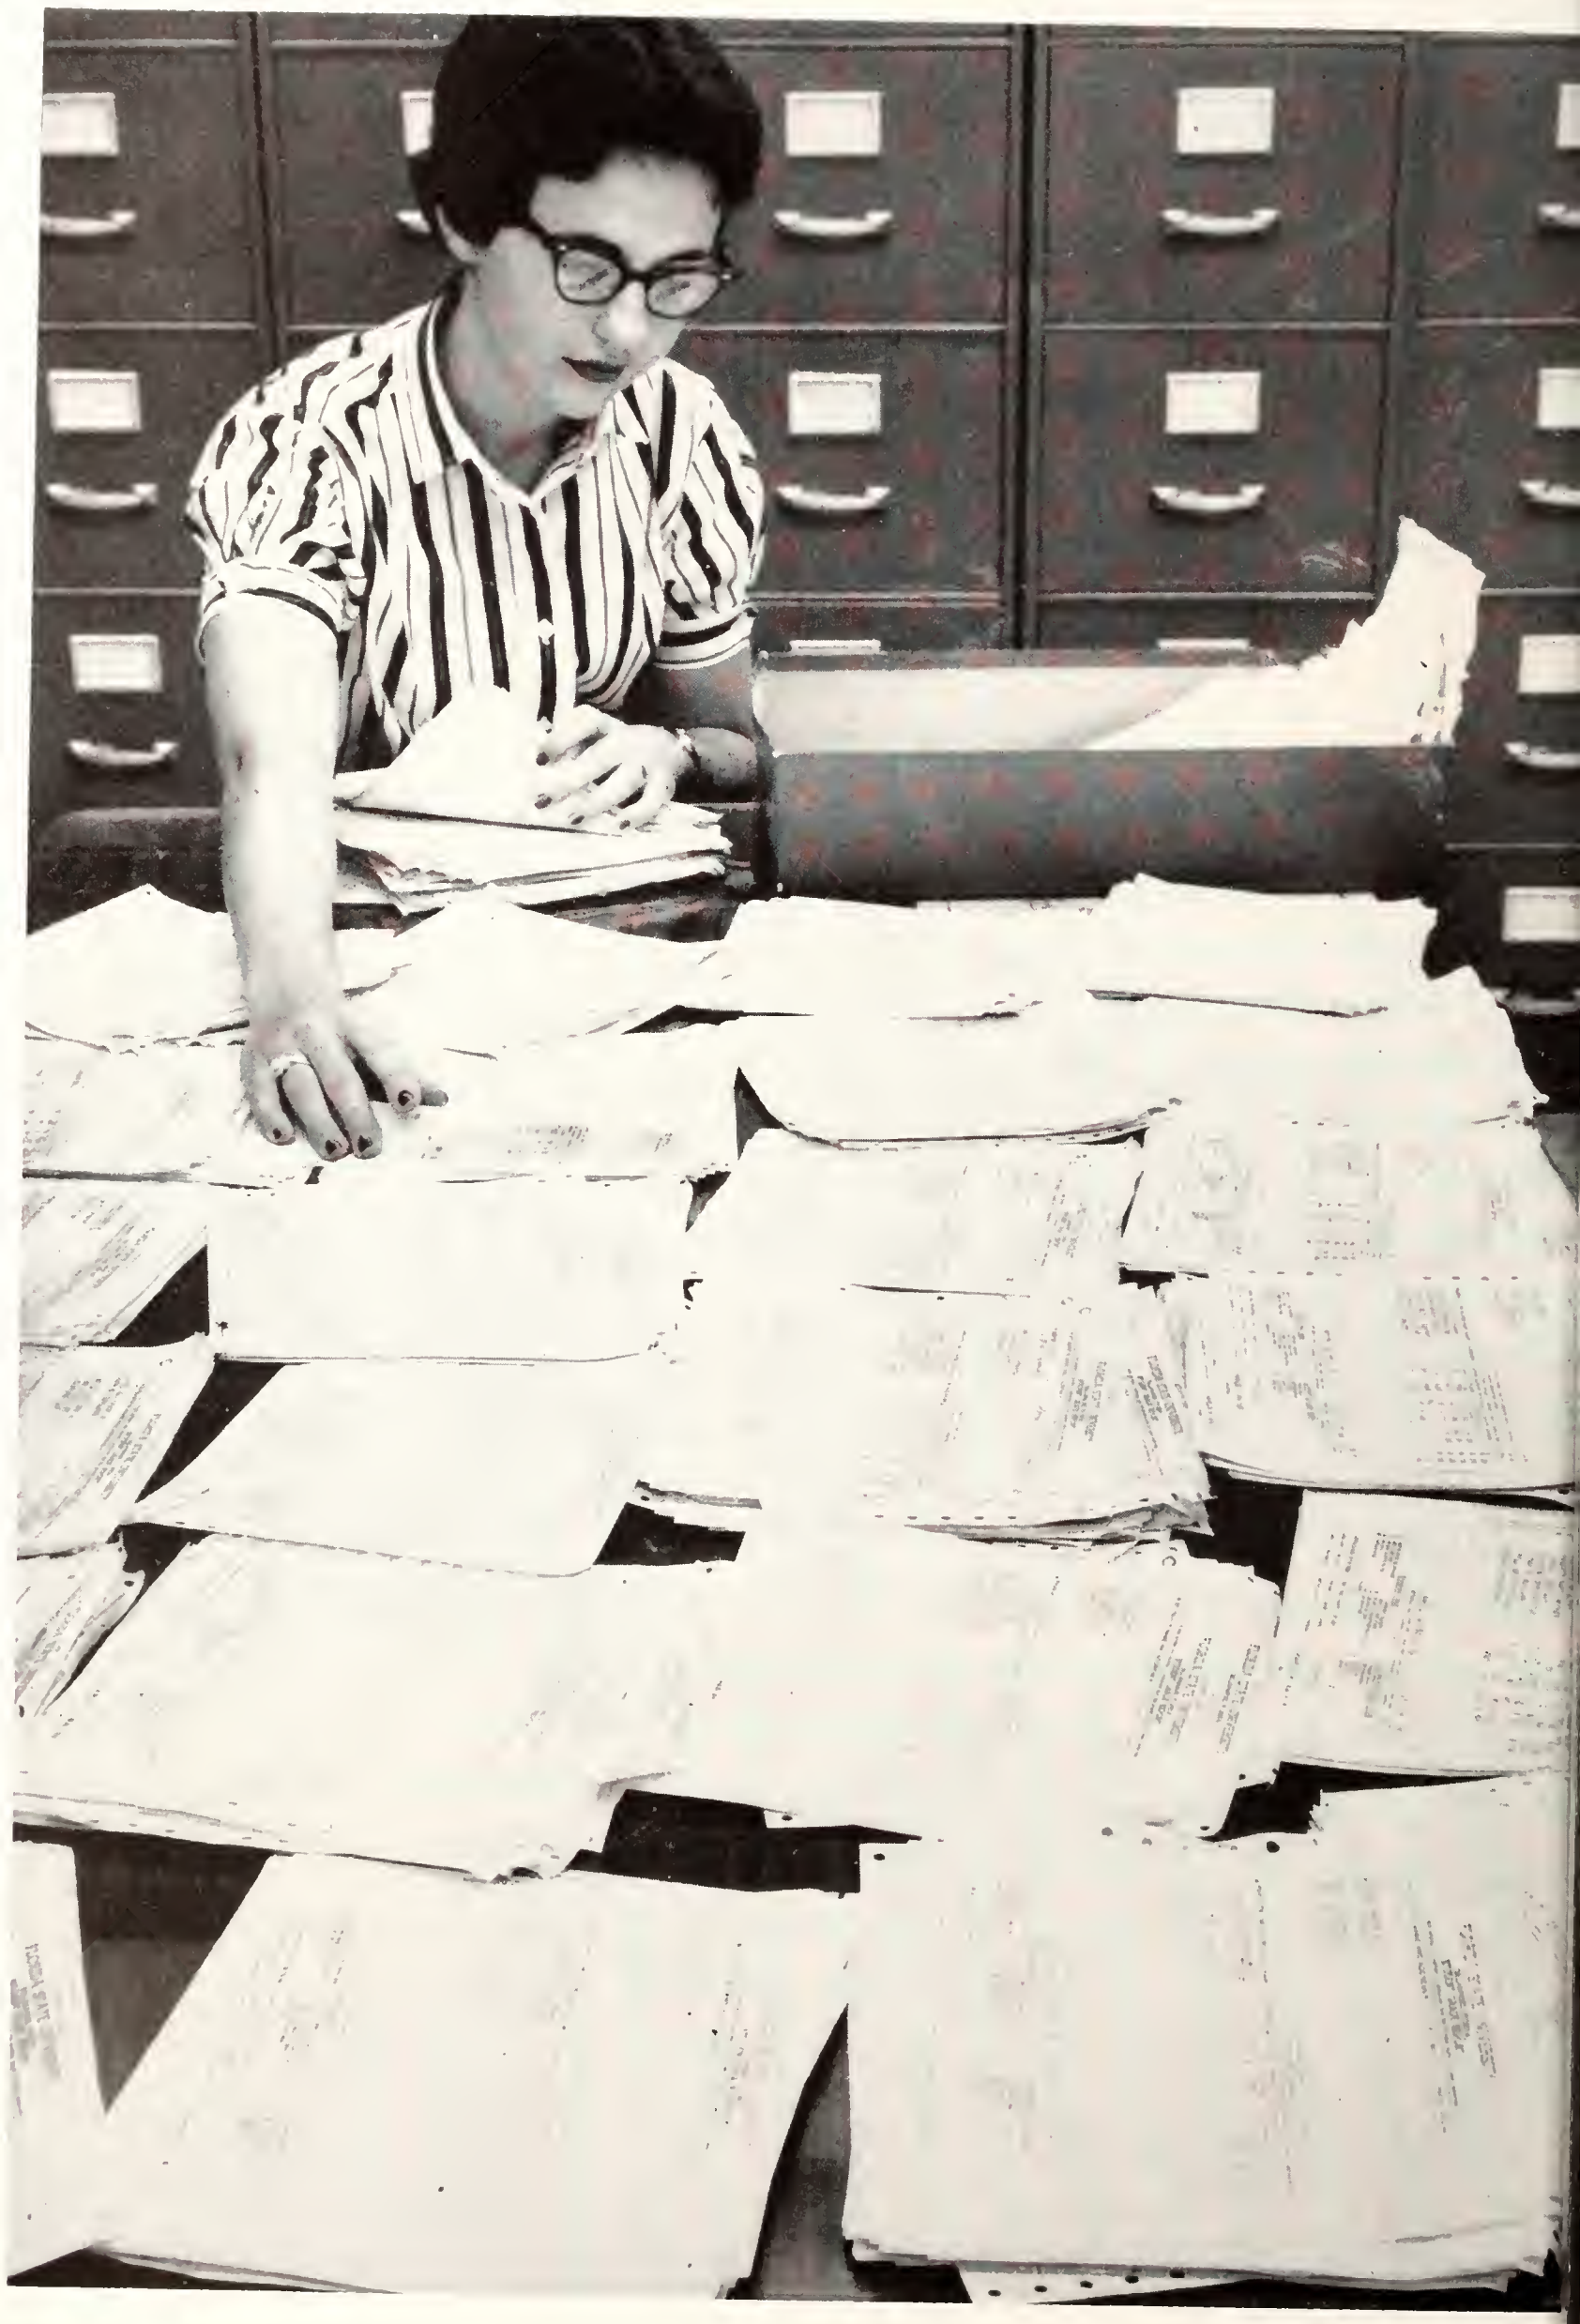
SCHOOLS



Dr. Charles C. Davis, Dean, College of Arts and Sciences

Arts and Sciences

The College of Arts and Sciences administers the general education program which is required of all students and offers general and liberal training in the humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences. This broad general background is being demanded more and more by leading industries and business corporations.

Training is offered for semi-professional programs, including medical technology, guidance counseling, and government services; as well as in liberal arts and the sciences. Pre-professional training is provided for the fields of law, medicine, dentistry and engineering. Students register in the College of Arts and Sciences who plan to major in any of the twenty-two basic fields or who are undecided about a major field of concentration.

Graduate programs in various departments have achieved national, and in some cases, international recognition. A student may work toward a master's degree in any department of the College and toward the doctor of philosophy degree in eleven of the departments.

Education

Both undergraduate and graduate students in the School of Education may pursue programs leading to teaching careers in nursery, kindergarten, elementary, secondary and junior college; in special education, guidance, and personnel work; as specialists in adult, art, driver, health, industrial arts, language arts, mathematics, modern language, physical, science, social studies, and vocational education; as school administrators and supervisors; as teacher educators; and as school finance, building, transportation and research specialists.

As an integral part of its program for teacher education, the School maintains the University School, including kindergarten through grade twelve. Special care is taken to coordinate the theory presented in education courses with practice in the school. The University School is dedicated to providing rich educational experiences for the students attending. Observation and limited participation in the school by students are for the purpose of seeing theory in action, in a carefully organized learning situation.

Dr. Mode L. Stone, Dean, School of Education

Strategically located in a rapidly expanding area of the United States, FSU's School of Business has an eye toward the future. Business is looking for more favorable economic, social and political environments, and projections of economic growth show that business is moving southward. It is estimated that 3,000 new plants with at least one million dollars' investment will decide to build in the south within the next ten years.

The factor that will ultimately determine the success of business in the industrial south is competent management. Thus, the growth in southern industries must be paralleled by an increase in education for business.

Young men and women find it advantageous to enter business through a well-designed educational program. The foundation for a business career is best established by completing a program of general education, followed by emphasis upon ability to analyze business data, reason intelligently, make value judgments, and to develop a sense of high moral responsibility.

Dr. Charles A. Ravetta
Dean, School of Business

Business

The School of Music endeavors to offer the best education in music available anywhere in the United States. Realizing the increasing influence of music on the citizens of this country, it would seem evident that outstanding men and women from this field should assume teaching responsibilities at Florida State University. This plan has been followed in the School of Music. Thus, the best student talent and ability has been attracted to this campus.

It is the purpose of the School of Music to help all students regardless of their degree of advancement. To this end, the general public is served by several hundred public performances each year, the regular University student is invited to sing and play in any of the music organizations, the undergraduate music major may choose from the eleven curricula offered, and the graduate student is guided in a number of areas of music study to the highest degree—the doctorate.

In addition to serving each year as hosts to a number of state meetings, the School of Music sponsors the FSU Music Camp, the Southeastern Music Workshop, Band Day and the String Clinic each year.

Music

Dr. Karl O. Kuersteiner, Dean, School of Music

Graduates

Dr. Milton W. Carothers, Dean, Graduate School

Florida State's rapidly expanding Graduate School has programs in all departments of the University except the School of Nursing. Doctoral programs are offered in music, education, home economics, music education, government, humanities, Spanish, English, biological oceanography, botany, zoology, chemistry, physics, meteorology, sociology, public administration, physiology, psychology, speech, and marriage and family living education, counseling and research.

Special facilities for graduate students have been provided in the new library and in the Graduate School Building.

Various research projects offer valuable experience and financial assistance to graduate students. They may also apply for a limited number of Graduate Fellowships. Graduate Assistantships are available through each department, and include teaching duties along with the course of study.

Dr. Louis Shores, Dean, Library School

Library

Librarianship is fundamentally concerned with the dissemination of ideas and the study of all the media of communication. Librarians, therefore, make up one of the main components of the psychological army. FSU graduates are serving all over the world in libraries and information centers of the United States Department of State and of the Armed Forces.

The introduction of bibliographers on the staffs of college and university libraries has stimulated a new demand for Ph. D. librarians, doubly trained in library science and the humanities, the sciences or the social sciences. There is also a great demand throughout the United States for librarians in the high schools and elementary schools.

FSU has the only nationally accredited professional Library School within a radius of five hundred miles of the center of the state. Its program leads to the basic master's degree, which may be completed in one calendar year.

Dr. Coyle E. Moore, Dean, School of Social Welfare

Programs of education and training on both the undergraduate and graduate levels are offered by the School of Social Welfare for those preparing for jobs in social work, social welfare, mental health, criminology and penology, and marriage and family counseling. Many students majoring in social welfare qualify to teach social studies in high school or teach in the elementary grades. Other students combine a major in social welfare with the equivalent of a major in psychology, political science, journalism, sociology or public administration. Many pre-ministerial students and pre-law students also find social welfare an excellent undergraduate major, as basic preparation for their professions.

The Marriage and Family Living division of the School offers a number of courses ranging from "Preparation for Marriage" to "Marriage Counseling" that prepare people for choosing mates wisely and for intelligent parenthood. In all its programs, the school ties up theory with practice through field trips, demonstrations, workshops and internships.

Social Welfare

Public Administration

Dr. Wilson K. Doyle, Deon, School of Public Administration

The objectives of the School of Public Administration are to train those seeking managerial careers in national, state or local government; to give pre-law training; and to help train good citizens.

Although the School is relatively young, it has gained wide recognition, drawing students from various parts of the nation and from foreign counties. It has developed a program of instruction with a number of pioneer features, including the use of noted government officials in the classroom and an internship plan that gives students actual administrative experience. In government, as in business, administration is the unifying cord that runs through all programs at all levels. As administrative skills are vital in a complex society, there is a growing demand for graduates of the School of Public Administration. They are to be found as budget officers, personnel officers, administrative assistants, city managers and in similar positions in the federal, state and local governments.

Putting principles into practice is a feature of the lab-classroom arrangement of the School of Journalism. In editorial, advertising, and television-radio classrooms, journalism students learn by doing. This practical instruction is supplemented by work on student publications as well as summer internships in communications media.

Great interest in photojournalism has developed with the establishment of a chapter of Kappa Alpha Mu, national photographic fraternity, on the FSU campus. A course in illustrative photography has been added to serve students majoring in art and related fields.

The Institute of Media Research was established this year with Dr. Sidney Kobre as head; the program of investigative studies was broadened; classrooms and offices in the Journalism Annex and the advertising lecture rooms were air conditioned; and additional radio and audio-visual facilities were acquired.

Dr. Laurence R. Campbell, Dean,
School of Journalism

Journalism

Dr. Margaret R. Sondels, Dean, School of Home Economics.

Home Economics

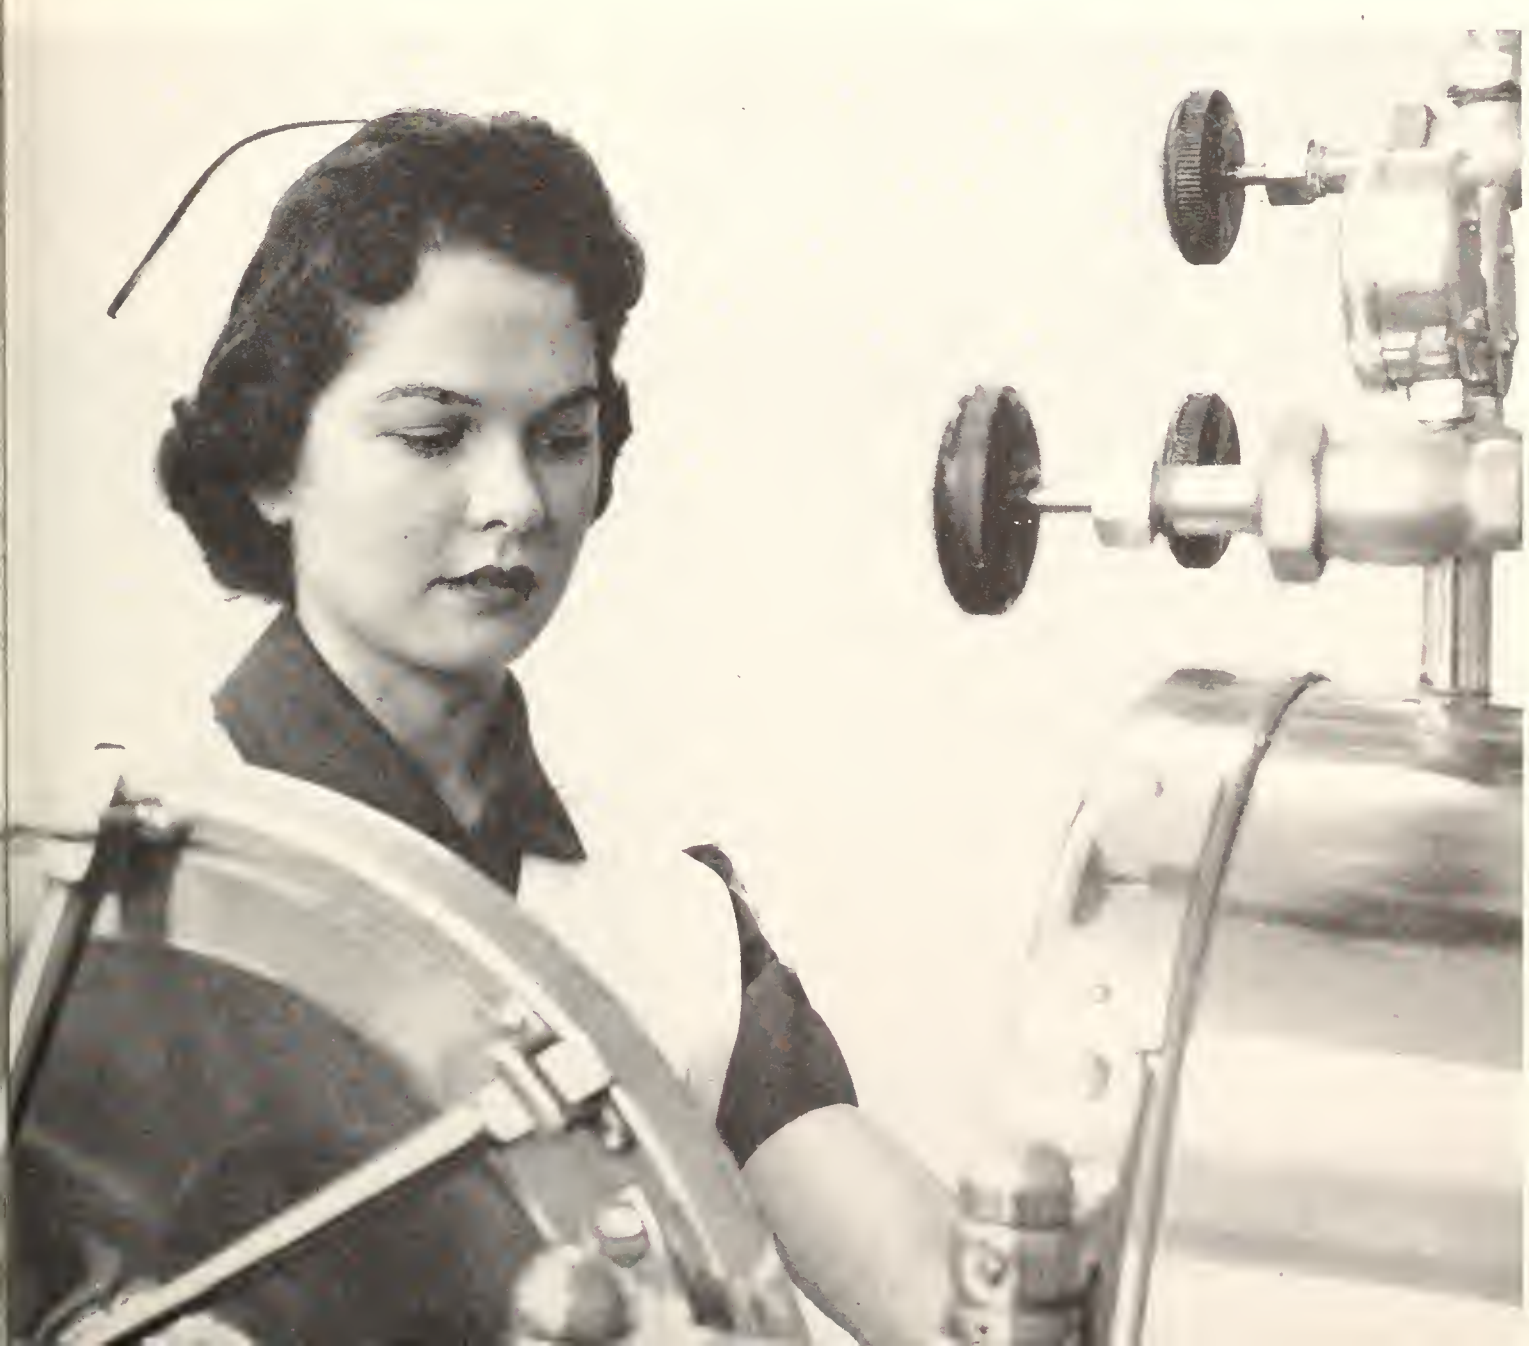
The School of Home Economics offers courses dealing with the problems of the home and the community as its contribution to general education. It provides specialized training for the professions growing out of former home activities and engages in investigation and research on the subjects falling within its area.

Students interested in the sciences may major in nutrition, food technology, textiles or household administration. The students with artistic ability may find that a major in interior design or fashion design is more to their liking; while students interested in the social sciences may specialize in child development, family relations or combine a major in nutrition with courses fitting them for public health careers. The teacher of home economics, the home demonstration agent or the commercial home economist are other possibilities for a career in this area.

All departments are housed in the spacious building which was designed for the School of Home Economics and completed in 1956.

Miss Vivian M. Duxbury, Dean, School of Nursing

Nursing



The FSU School of Nursing is the only one in the state approved for Federal Traineeships and now has enrolled many students on both state and federal scholarships. The School offers two programs; both include the full general education requirements of the University, giving the prospective nurses a solid foundation on which to base their professional education.

The Bachelor of Science in Nursing includes a basic program designed for people with little or no previous training in nursing, and gives them experience in working with hospital patients and with public health work. The Bachelor of Science in Nursing Education prepares those nurses who are already registered for leadership in public health, teaching, supervision, administration, and other related areas.

Although the first nursing students were not admitted until 1950, graduates already number over one hundred and are to be found in many foreign countries, as well as in the United States.

Col. Howard J. Withycombe.

AFROTC

Objectives of the Air Force ROTC unit are to attract the highest type of personnel into the US Air Force and its civilian components; to develop in all cadets an understanding of modern warfare and the place and function of air power in the defense of the United States; and to qualify AFROTC cadets to perform duties normally expected of a junior Air Force officer.

The basic course is designed to familiarize the student with the characteristics of air power, weapons and operations. Other activities provide cadets with the opportunity to participate in the cadet band, drill team, rifle team and newspaper.

Advanced cadets who qualify for pilot training are given thirty-five to forty hours of flight instruction during their senior year.

ROTC

The Army ROTC program offers a student the opportunity to combine his military duties with academic preparation for his future career. Training follows the general Military Science curriculum and consists of two years basic and two years advanced courses. Completion of the program leads to a reserve commission of second lieutenant in any branch of the Army; distinguished military students may receive appointments to the Regular Army.

Aims of the program are to prepare young men for positions of command and to develop in them essential knowledge and characteristics of an officer. Subjects common to all branches of the Army are included in the curiculum, such as psychology of leadership, personnel management, military administration, map and photograph reading, military operations and logistics, weapons and their uses and the procedures relating to command and staff.

The Honor Court has jurisdiction over violations of the Honor Code, which are cheating, lying and stealing; the constitutionality of all laws passed by the Student Senate; and appeals from the lower courts.

Composed of a Chief Justice, a clerk, and eight representatives elected by the student body, the Honor Court has a range of power including probation, suspension and expulsion, subject to review and recommendation by a Faculty Review Committee.

Flambeau

Organized chaos seems to pay off for the FLAMBEAU Staff, since the Monday and Thursday free-for-alls have resulted in another All-American rating for this publication.

"Florida's First Bi-Weekly University Paper" features among its services news on both national and local levels, sports, editorials, cartoons by Herblock, student opinions and a society page in the Friday editions.

The staff is composed of two divisions—editorial and business. The former is headed by the Editor-in-chief and includes the news and feature editors as well as columnists and editorialists. The business staff, under the watchful eye of the Business Manager, provides advertising and keeps the books.

Tally Ho

"Next week we've got to get organized." Using this phrase as a watchword, the 1958 Tally Ho staff managed to grope its way in ordered confusion through a manic-depressive sort of year. The result: a play-by-play account of the sundry goings-on at FSU in 1958.

The staff and editor are grateful to all who have contributed their blood, sweat and time in the production of this record of campus life at Florida State University.

Board of Student Publications

As its purpose, the Student Board of Publications helps to maintain a high standard of journalism among student publications in the University. Its duties include the appointing of the editor and business manager of each publication, the approval of their respective budgets and financial statements and the consideration of requests concerning their policies.

The Board is composed of five student members, elected in the spring for the following year, and three faculty members appointed by the President. Non-voting members include the editors and business managers of each publication and Advisor for Student Publications, Dr. Reid Montgomery.

WFSU-FM reaches listeners from Oregon to the Virgin Islands through widely distributed tape recordings, in addition to providing good listening for local fans. The University radio station, with offices in the Music Building, emphasizes good music during its sixty-five hour broadcasting week.

In addition, the station's technical equipment is used to prepare sound tracks for University films, which are produced by the department and broadcast throughout the state by commercial TV stations.

WFSU-TV

Documentary and educational television programs are the specialty of WFSU-TV, and are produced through the Office of Communication and Radio, headed by Director Roy Flynn.

Programs telecast over WCTV, channel 6 in Tallahassee and WMBR-TV, channel 4 in Jacksonville use a variety of student and faculty talent in the presentation of informative and interesting material ranging from lessons in basic Spanish to shows especially designed and arranged for children.

Women's Dorm Life

"Modine Gunch, room two-oh-nyon, you have a callah." Life in a women's dorm seems to consist of an eternal wait—for phone calls and messages, for a washing machine that's not in use, for the last minute before the clock ticks and the lights flash the signal to come in, and for your roommate to empty the waste-basket.

Florida Hall at night presents a composition in dark and light areas.

Tell her to hurry or we'll miss the first show.

Whaddya mean, "like to iron"! I've got to have something to wear.

Things—a wide assortment of them—do get done, though; the people next door move the furniture in their room twice at week—at midnight; fire drills are regularly held on the coldest night of the year; someone who lives upstairs practices tap dancing at seven a.m.; and the days pass by in a procession of teas, homecoming decorations, snatched periods of study and lengthy conversations about everything imaginable.

It's a great life.

A quiet evening at home includes reading and bull sessions.

Men's Dorm Life

Not a matter for the weak-hearted, living in one of the three men's dorms is like Mardi Gras in a wind tunnel. Whether you're a Magnolia Hall Smokeater, a member of West Hall's exclusive Penthouse Gang or one of the many sunbathers that crop up on the Senior Hall lawn every spring, dorm life means constant poker games, a crowd around the TV set, the guy next door who changes his sheets once a semester — whether they need it or not, the bull sesions that form instantly when you open a book and the constant (im) practical jokes.

Inbetween times, the inhabitants also form intramurals teams, sponsor dances and steal lumber for Homecoming floats amidst the din of ringing alarm clocks, fire bells and telephones.

Eightball in the corner pocket! One of the local champs prepares a masterly shot.

The picture of comfort. Studying has to be done in the least inconvenient manner possible.

Inter-Fraternity Council

On the FSU Campus there are fifteen national fraternities. The Inter-Fraternity Council, composed of representatives from all the fraternities acts as a governing body. It administers rules governing rushing, pledging, initiations, and the general deportment of fraternities on campus. The council encourages scholastic achievement, cooperation among the various groups, and conducts its affairs in the best interest of the University.

In the Spring, IFC held its annual weekend which included a banquet, group meetings for the officers of the different fraternities, and sports events among the various chapters. Climaxing the weekend's activities was the IFC formal dance, at which the new IFC queen and her court were presented.

Pan Hellenic

The Panhellenic Council is composed of representatives from the sixteen sororities and functions as a governing body for all sorority activities. The goal of the council is to foster cooperation among sororities in working toward the maintenance of college ideals and standards. Among the achievements of the council this year were the unusually high overall sorority scholastic average.

A Pan-Hellenic Workshop was held in the Fall which included seminars and discussion groups among the various sororities. Suggestions were made concerning new rush policies, and the possibility of a new sorority at FSU was discussed.

On the social scene, the Council sponsored Pan-Hel Weekend in December which was highlighted by a formal dance, and the presentation of the Delta Tau Delta Sorority of the Year Award to Kappa Alpha Theta.

"Operation Denise" was a major philanthropic project, endeavoring to make the final weeks of a six year old girl's life enjoyable ones. Toys and money were collected and sent to the tiny leukemia victim at Christmas time.

ALPHA CHI OMEGA

Missing: One Mail Box and One Door Knocker!

The second year for AChiO in the Big White House has been an eventful one. Mrs. Neva Schreck was welcomed as the new housemother, and she joined the AChiO's in a successful rush season followed by a hectic schedule all year long. Alpha Chi's contributed members to Garnet Key, Senate, Honor Court, Alpha Lambda Delta, Sigma Alpha Iota, and other organizations.

Peanuts invaded the chapter for Homecoming, with Lucy, Snoopy, Charlie Brown and lots of "Good Grief" combining to make an original and clever decoration.

Long live the pledge class: Hera Day, and the needy people . . . The Easter Egg Tree for the Tuberculosis Hospital . . . Carnation Ball . . . White Formals on the Balcony.

ALPHA DELTA PI

"Snorkel" time at the ADPi House finds mass confusion as it becomes known at 7 a.m. that a certin someone was pinned the night before; as the famous composer sings these memorable tunes while the faint roar of "Red Russia" prevails. In due time the question—"Remember the night behind the Green Door?" which is drowned out by a screech from number one psycho case. Water filters through the plaster as the seniors are saturated, panic results when buzzers go wild — "Who's it for?" — The answer: "Modine Gunch".

Overheard were — Ham and sweet potatoes — How will I ever make 750 pledge points? — Is this socially acceptable? — Yea, she's the one with a wart on her nose. — He's really cool.

Inevitable sights — a car-type bug partially owned by two uninhibited ADPi's, black coffee, a blissful four sporting the rings, and the eternal fraternity pins.

ADPi points with pride to a winning float in the Homecoming parade . . . a second in house decorations . . . the gavel holder of Freshman Flunkies . . . the circus members . . . Cotillion members . . . intramurals trophies . . . politicians as secretary of the Junior Class, Women's Senator . . . Theta Chi Sweetheart . . . Village Vamps . . . Gymkana court member and new housemother, Mrs. Flora Hudson. A toast for another winning year.

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA / GAMMA BETA

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA

One-Two-Three-Four . . . One . . . Two . . . No, it isn't the band, it isn't even a dancing class. It's the Alpha Gams out to reduce! The calorie craze took the chapter by storm, and there were many laughs, even if few waistlines were thinned.

Outside the house, Alpha Gams served as Secretary of Activities, members of Mortor Board, Tarpon, Women's F Club, Fashion Institute, Circus, Band, and Jackie Haley was Head Majorette.

As if FSU honors weren't enough, the Alpha Gams went on to win a national award at their National Convention at Coronado, California as the chapter of Alpha Gamma Delta with the highest scholarship in the country. In addition, National awarded the FSU chapter the award as the chapter most outstanding in campus activities. This is the first time that one chapter has won both awards.

The Soap Box Derby, held with the Phi Delts, earned the contribution to Campus Chest. An Easter Egg Hunt was held in the Spring for underprivileged children of the Tallahassee area.

Francine Coffey, a transfer to FSU, was a princess in the Orange Bowl Pageant on New Year's Day in Miami.

The Hernando's Hideaway Party held in the fall in honor of the pledges, was a howling success. But the Party at the Reservation after initiation had a few pitfalls . . . what did happen to the water, anyway? And, where did those Sigma Chi's come from?

ALPHA OMICRON PI / ALPHA PI

ALPHA OMICRON PI

"AOPi One Time! . . . . ."

The Red and White Banner proudly surveyed the playing field at the Sigma Chi Derby, and watched AOPi achieve a sweeping victory over the other sororities. Queen Rita Nelms presided over the various athletic events, and the trophy was won. A display of spirit and cooperation also retired the Ugly Man Trophy this year.

AOPi's served their campus in Garnet Key, Circus, Student Government, Sophomore Council, Junior Council, Gamma Alpha Chi, Sigma Alpha Iota, Alpha Lambda Delta, and various religious groups.

Next year the AOPi's hope to have a new house, but you'd have to admit, rushing at the Kappa Sig House was fun. Other social highlights were a Christmas party for needy children, an Easter Party for children given with the Delts, the Pledge Banquet at the Silver Slipper, and AOPi Weekend. Bob Lansford gallantly served as Man of the Year and the AOPi housemother completed her tenth year with the FSU chapter.

The Homecoming theme: "Around the World in 80 Days" indicates the spirit of the red and white for 1957-58.

AO(cutie) Pi's: Captain Martha Hall and her portrait . . . this ole house . . . pedigree . . . Ann Mc's pony tail . . . Leomen the demon . . . the scholarship file . . . Thursday night suppers minus the buffet . . . Sally's laugh.

ALPHA XI DELTA / ALPHA OMEGA

ALPHA XI DELTA

The "active Alpha Xi's" spent a busy year, contributing to all phases of campus life. Jan Kaminis as Vice President of the Student Body presided over the Senate, where three other Alpha Xi's held Senate chairs. Other activities included Circus, Sophomore Council, Flambeau, Garnet Key, Who's Who, Tarpon, Mortar Board, Mortified, Alpha Omega Delta, Kappa Delta Pi, Phi Chi Theta, Tau Beta Sigma, Gamma Alpha Chi, various religious groups, and many more.

Alpha Xi captured the inter-sorority bowling trophy, and won first place in the Homecoming Skit Competition. Beauties reigned as Queen of the Kappa Sigma's Snowball Formal, and as a member of the Homecoming Court.

The pledge class gave a Thanksgiving Party for the actives, and presented the chapter with a Barbeque Pit for outdoor parties. A Christmas Party for underprivileged children given with the Delts, a Circus Combo, Square Dance during Pan-Hel weekend, and Alpha Xi weekend highlighted by the Rose Formal are further evidences of a gay and profitable year.

Overheard: Let's get organized . . . You Toad . . . He was a Gnome . . . We need a Fourth for bridge . . . That's weak . . . Anyone for a coffee break . . . Out of order . . . Madge and Steph's auction chair.

TOTAL: VICTORY!

The Chi O's displayed their originality and school spirit in this unique homecoming display, and for a skit showed Eloise, the chapter favorite, introducing new President Strozier to the campus.

On the beauty scene, Chi Omega was represented four times on the Gymkana Court, on the Miss FSU Court, The Theta Chi Court, The KA Court at Gainesville, and supplied the Lambda Chi Crescent Girl.

Chi O's made their presence known by their contributions to Mortar Board, Garnet Key, Sophomore Council, Sophomore Traffic Court, Religious groups, and Chairman of Judiciary, in the form of Martha Grizzard.

Fraternity parties, the charity party at Christmas with the Theta Chi's, the Retreat in May, and Chi O Weekend, which features the Owl Man (the boy who has done the most for the sorority during the year) highlighted the season's social calendar.

DELTA DELTA DELTA

The Tri Delts supplied many FSU beauties this year, as Barbara Bishop served as a member of the Homecoming Court and Miss Football, Kay McClain was elected Citrus Queen and a member of the Maid of Cotton Court, and numerous DDD's graced the Gymkana Court.

On the serious side, chapter projects included a Christmas party for their maids' children. Each year one of the children, Delta Ann, is dressed in silver, gold and blue, the Tri-Delt colors, and honored at the party. Other philanthropic endeavors are an annual Easter Egg Hunt for the alums' children, and the presentation of a scholarship to a deserving FSU student.

You Should Have Seen Dept: Cay Cranford as Cleopatra . . . the measles epidemic for Tri Delt weekend . . . the blazing totem pole . . . Ice skating on the terrace . . . the sleepwalker . . . the weight lifter . . . Vicki running from the pig in the Sigma Chi Derby.

Tri Delts served as Vice Presidents of Landis and Bryan, President of Gamma Alpha Chi, and June Lassister was the recipient of the Home Economics Scholastic Award.

DELTA GAMMA / GAMMA MU

DELTA GAMMA

Second semester found the Delta Gamm's ready to move into their beautiful new, red brick modern-colonial house on the corner. Due to the hazards of Fullers' earth, there was a wait. After several semesters of makeshift living, everyone agreed that it will be a welcome change when the DG's have a home of their own.

Homecoming found the DG's not seeing, but riding a Pink Elephant. Rachel Arbuhtnot rode the huge float in the parade, and FSU in general was "tickled pink".

For their contribution to the Campus Chest Fund, the DG's teamed with the Pikes to sponsor the Joe College-Betty Co-Ed Contest.

Students who are blind or partially blind are helped by the sight conservation project. Delta Gamma's read aloud to these students, both for academic and recreational purposes.

The pledges, bless them . . . The Halloween Party out at Camp with the new pledges was a huge success. No, I wasn't scared, were you?

Bridge, bridge and more bridge. Yes, it was a good year.

DELTA ZETA / ALPHA SIGMA

DELTA ZETA

Fraught with dexterity, as ever, the Delta Zeta's demonstrated ability to lead and to follow, with active participation in Sophomore Council, Garnet Key, Senate, Circus, Cotillion, and various religious groups.

DZ beauties were Sigma Nu sweetheart, Rosemary Stainback, and members of the Delt, KA, and Delta Sigma Pi courts. A coffee for the Homecoming Queen candidates has become an annual event; this year the candidates were introduced to the campus leaders.

Stop that man! Three mystery men set fire to the DZ homecoming float at three o'clock in the morning . . . but they rebuilt it in time for the parade. Arson, anyone?

Oh, to be a fly on the wall: . . . to see the contest during fire drills to choose the girl with the most original head-dress.

Long to be remembered: "Delta Debutantes" . . . bicycle ride out to camp and the decorated bikes . . . pledge Christmas party . . . caroling . . . Rose Weekend.

GAMMA PHI BETA / BETA MU

GAMMA PHI BETA

Who's got the Bird? After Homecoming, somebody walked off with the huge gobbler that had been part of the Gamma Phi's house decorations. A mildly frantic search failed to recover the turkey so the "New Feathers for Sammy's Headress" were short lived.

Honoraries: Phi Chi Theta, Tau Beta Sigma, Sigma Alpha Iota, Sigma Alpha Eta, Kappa Delta Pi.

Gamma Phi's on campus include members of Circus, Cotillion, Los Picaros, Choral Union, Flambeau Staff, Band, and Sophomore and Junior Counselors.

Highway going through the house? No, it only looked that way—some joker planted red construction lights in front of the manse—just for fun, of course.

Some other jokers, presumably sisters all, painted "Gamma Phi Beta" in big Greek letters on the sidewalks in front of many a frat house. It pays to advertise!

KAPPA ALPHA THETA / BETA NU

KAPPA ALPHA THETA

Sorority of the year! That's what the trophy says. At the Pan-Hel Dance, Delta Tau Delta awarded their sorority of the year trophy to the Thetas for their contribution to campus life. Other hardware includes the scholarship cup, evidence of two consecutive semesters top Greek scholastic standing.

FSU will be represented officially for 57-58 by Layte Bowden, elected Miss FSU. Other Theta beauties include Linda Rollins, Sigma Chi Sweetheart; Liz Armes on the Homecoming Court and several members of the Gymkana Court. Thetas can be found out on Campus serving on Judiciary, Flambeau Staff, Mortar Board, Garnet Key, Who's Who, and Dormitory Presidents. Torchy Briscoe was elected to the Hall of Fame and Jeani Kitchens was president of Village Vamps.

Scene of many good parties and TV watching was the "Little Hut", the Theta Annex. The house was purchased by the alums as a place for recreation and informal entertaining.

Highlight of the social season was Theta Weekend in March. KAT's and their dates spent Saturday at Panama City.

Mrs. H. P. Reeves of Lakeland was welcomed as the new housemother. She rapidly proved herself mistress of all situations, including a fire in the boiler room and a dead duck thrown inside of the front door.

Theta Data . . . The serenade in the snow . . . 6:00 a.m. bridge games . . . the missing mail box . . . the FSU roadrunners . . . Daytona Beach between semesters . . . "roll your stars over" . . . old spice sachet from the pledges . . . Pablo Amato on the bass and spoons . . . Legend has it . . . it was a great year.

KAPPA DELTA / KAPPA ALPHA

KAPPA DELTA

"Excuse me, ma'm, but I'm working my way through college. . ." The KD's were awarded a prize for being the chapter with the highest magazine sales at their National Convention at St. Louis. Delegates were Betty Sue Graham and Barbara Jones.

Four KD senators were active this year—sisters also held responsible positions in Village Vamps, Judiciary, Circus, and Theater Dance. Two KD's were members of the Gymkana Court—Jenny Zipperer and Marilyn Harris—and President of ACE was Diane Latimer.

On the light side: the Pledge-Active Halloween Party and the annual Christmas Party, the spaghetti supper and the annual Easter Egg Hunt for the Alums' children.

Second place for originality in the Homecoming Float contest went to KD for their covered wagon. It took the efforts of the Tallahassee Police Force to erect the House Decorations—Who called the cops?

PHI MU

PHI MU

The direct approach is best, just ask the Phi Mu's . . . When they choose "Mad" comics as the theme for their Homecoming Decorations, they decided to clear it with "Mad" before proceeding. "Mad's" answer: "Send us a picture after it's all lit up—or better yet, send us a picture of your girls when they're all lit up."

For the second straight year . . . Phi Mu has "Ugliest Woman on Campus". Not quite, but they did do a superb make-up job, and retired the "Ugly Woman" Trophy. In contrast, two Phi Mu's were members of the Miss Gymkana Court.

Pi Mu on Campus: Jaycees, Sophomore Council, Circus, Theater Dance, SAI, Tarpon, Alpha Lambda Delta, and Gamma Alpha Chi.

Community spirit prompts the toy cart sponsored by Phi Mu in Tallahassee Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Jim Denny, the new housemother, has been a wonderful addition to the chapter . . . Welcome.

A jolly Christmas party given by the pledges for the actives found Yuletide joy rife. This was especially evinced by the pledges in their red pajamas.

Phi Mu all the time.

PI BETA PHI

Girls of the Golden Arrow hold seats on Honor Court, Sophomore Council, Flambeau Staff, Judiciary, and serve as members of Garnet Key, Mortified, Village Vamps, and as class officers. On the beauty scene, Nan Chamberlain reigned as Queen of Gymkana, and Lynn LaGrange swapped her Miss FSU Crown to serve as this year's Homecoming Queen. The Soap Box Derby was triumphantly won by Deanne Head as she scooted down the College Avenue Hill in her racer.

A retreat with the pledges was a howling success—they presented "Teahouse of the Pi Phi Moon". Other Pi Phi talents: The original Pi Phi Songs at the Christmas party; the Pi Phi Hideaway with Jean Hayden as Lola; "Red Wing" presented by the silly sophomores; and McPi Phi singing the closet member's theme song: "I Know How Ugly I Are".

P.P.P.D.S.E.S.C.: held weekly meetings at the Round-Up . . . much fun and functioning by all. Spring found the sun worshippers headed for the garbage cans to soak up ol' Sol.

The Salvation Army Christmas Project was the main philanthropic effort of the year—also at Christmas the Pi Phi's teamed with the Thetas for a party out at Silver Lake.

SIGMA KAPPA / OMEGA

SIGMA KAPPA

The daily morning alarm of hammers on the roof finally ceased and the Sigma Kappas realized their dream as the new addition was completed. Another new adidtion was the hi-fi set given to the chapter by the seniors and pledges—to supply background music for announcements at dinner.

It's a "House Divided" this year, with June Sillay, Secretary of the Collegiate Party and Jackie Soud, Vice-Chairman of Student Party, as well as several other leaders on both sides.

The Sigma Kappas captured the sorority award for the most improvement in scholarship. Almost half of the new initiates made the Dean's List. It's not just brains, however. Among the beauty awards were those to Margaret Sue Hooten, Chamber of Commerce Queen and Queen of Darlington College; Jackie Soud, Gymkana Court; Elaine Eisenger, Jennie Murphree Sweetheart Court; and June Sillay, Smoke Signals Feature.

Wise Remarks Department: "It was big enough without the head," contributed by Bobby Jones in her sleep, referring to the somewhat oversized, disqualified Homecoming float.

Moments to Remember: The 2:00 a.m. Phi Delt callers; mass infirmary visits after the snow fights; Hot Rod Prissy Parkin's second place ride in the Soap Box Derby.

Weekly Announcements: "Who stole my peanut butter?" "Who left the socks soaking in the bathroom?" "Girls, I'm going to put a lock on that kitchen door." "Are you tired?". . ."Noop!"

Anyone care for roast duck? . . . Er-Dink: noise of the day . . . Notice a dent in Combs' car? . . . College Avenue attempted kidnapping . . . the understanding County judge . . . the missing bush and the coffin door.

There's never a dull moment at the White House on the Hill. Campus successes include first place in Homecoming House Decoration, second place in the skit contest; second place in scholarship; basketball championship; and National Merit award presented by ZTA to the chapter with sustained superiority in all phases of campus life.

Honor Court has completed a successful year under the chairmanship of Barbara Burkhart. Other Zetas in the limelight are the secretary and three members of Judiciary; secretary of Elections; Frosh Treasurer and Senator; Gamma Alpha Chi President and members of many campus organizations.

Homecoming Princess Joyce Combs and KA Rose, Ruth Starling, and members of the Pi Kappa Phi and Kappa Sig Courts comprise the beauty section. In addition, Carla McKinney, Miss Peanut, won a trip to Chicago for winning that national competition.

Gimme an "A" . . . Varsity Football would have been in sad shape without the ATO's this year, as would baseball, basketball, swimming and tennis. In addition to their outstanding athletic representation, the ATO's supplied the President of IFC, John Morris; Don Reedy on Honor Court, and Bill McKemie as Chief Justice of Traffic Court. First place in fraternity scholarship goes to the blue and gold, and nobody can deny that they sure can pick Homecoming Queens. This year Lynn LaGrange of Pi Beta Phi, sponsored by ATO, reigned over the Homecoming celebration.

The Four Freshmen came to FSU, courtesy of the ATO's as their contribution to the Campus Chest Fund. Additional charity projects are the annual Christmas Party for underprivileged children, and Help Week, when they painted a church in Chatahoochee.

Life can be beautiful department . . . Every weekend during football season the house was the scene of a rousing combo party. Other social highlights were parties with the Tri Delts, Alpha Gams, Pi Phis and the annual Spring Weekend complete with Orchid Ball and coast party.

DELTA TAU DELTA / DELTA PHI

DELTA TAU DELTA

How much am I bid? Ladies and gentlemen, how much will you give for this glorious specimen of American Manhood . . . Going, going, gone!

The annual Delt Slave Auction provided one of the most colorful events of the year, and netted a sizeable sum for the Delt contribution to Campus Chest.

FSU Fixtures: Cruising around Campus loaded with Delts and assorted dates the Delt fire engine . . . it's tempermental, but it does make noise.

At the Pan-Hel Dance in December, the Delt "Sorority of the Year" award was presented to the Theta's. The Delts themselves were the recipients of the Sigma Kappa "Host of the Year" award, evidence of plenty of good parties and Delt charm.

Delts on Campus include Fred Ford of Men's Judiciary, and active participants in Collegians, Cavaliers, Marching Chiefs, Tally-Ho, and members of several varsity teams.

The social season was highlighted by the Rainbow Ball on April 12, where reigning Sweetheart Marianne Ferlisi relinquished her title to the new queen. Homecoming took on the forward look with a replica of the Chrysler Corporation emblem and the University Seal riding an impressive float. The annual Christmas Party was held with the Alpha Xi's for underprivileged children.

And the next time the Forest Rangers report that the pledges are in jail, we'll let them go!

KAPPA ALPHA / GAMMA ETA

KAPPA ALPHA

"In eighteen hundred and sixty five . . ."

The strains of "Dixie", the roll of drums, the roar of cannon . . . top hatted gentlemen, lovely ladies, and the Stars and Bars . . . These are the sights and sounds familiar to Tallahassee during Kappa Alpha Order's annual Old South Week-end, a celebration unique among college fraternities. All the glory and splendor of the ante-bellum South is recaptured as the KA's pay tribute to their heritage.

"She has two dreamy eyes of blue . . ."

Miss Ruth Starling of Panama City, now Mrs. William Atkins, was crowned Kappa Alpha Rose for 1957 at the Old South Ball which culminates the week's festivities.

Another feminine face in evidence this past year was that of KA's new housemother, Mrs. M. L. Ward of Marianna. Mother Ward assumed her duties in January of 1957.

"It's a grand old gang!"

Not to be outdone by any damn-yankees, the scientific minds of the chapter pooled their knowledge, added a "little" physical energy and came up with an equal of Russia's missile program. Not only did the brothers build a satellite suitable for outer space they also constructed the the planet "Dixie with the little sputnik revolving around it. "Smash the VPI Sputnick" was the theme of this elaborate Homecoming decoration with a space suited Seminole doing the honors. No prize, but a lovely bonfire!

KAPPA SIGMA

How high does the eagle fly?

Bob and Tom are still in the hog-rustling business this year. Just call 2-4514 for immediate delivery. These hogs are worth their weight in GOLD!

Drop by some Saturday evening and see the Totem Pole go up in smoke.

Greenville one time!

And now to journey from the ridiculous to the sublime —

Kappa Sigs have been outstanding in Phi Eta Sigma, Pi Sigma Alpha, Alpha Delta Sigma, Pershing Rifles, and Alpha Council. The FSU chapter's Blood Bank has become a national institution, helping brothers and friends of the chapter in time of need. Underprivileged children of the Tallahassee area were feted with parties at Christmas, co-sponsored by the Chi Omega's and at Easter, as well.

On the social scene: the Pledge Cotillion in October, the Snow Ball Formal in December, and the Black and White Ball in March were highlights. Intramurals were not neglected, and most important was winning the annual softball game against the KA's. and now back to the ridiculous:

Kappa Sig Roll Call: Little Caesar . . . Patsy . . . St. Bernard . . . Landscape Architect . . . Ollie . . . Ostrich . . . Bunny Rabbit Maher . . . Daddy Holt . . . Stella.

LAMBDA CHI ALPHA / ZETA RHO

LAMBDA CHI ALPHA

Lambie Pambie's went politicking—end result: three Senators — Ron Clark, Joe Barber, and Don Sink legislated for Lambda Chi this year.

You'd better believe it: Gus finally got his Hudson this year!

Must be Tough Department: Bob Lansford reigned as AOPi Man of the Year. Chapter Gallahads treated the sororities with parties during the year, and whirled their way through Lambda Chi weekend in the Spring. Other social events are Founder's Day, and the Senior Banquet honoring graduating brothers.

We hate to point, but you can breathe now, Jack. Just one question, Don . . . What time does the balloon go up?

To raise money for Campus Chest Lambda Chi challenges another fraternity to a tackle football game each fall. This year the game was played at Leon High School, and KA's were the opponents. All proceeds went to the Campus Chest Fund.

PHI KAPPA TAU

Come in, Station WXYZ . . . Champion Ball Game Caller George Wajdowicz is on the air! Phi Tau prowess on the air paid off — listening (in shifts) continuously to a local radio program, the brothers were able to identify the proper songs, thus winning a hi-fi set for the chapter. Among other "wins" for Phi Tau were a second place in the Homecoming float competion with their float, "Campus Memories", receiving the "most beautiful" commendation.

The Flambeau, or "Phi Tau Gazette" as it might be called, relies on brothers for Business Manager, Advertising Manager, Exchange Manager, Circulation Manager, and columnist, Bucky Cannon. Other Phi Tau's on Campus are members of Collegians, Choral Union, Cavaliers, Marching Chiefs, ROTC Drill Team, Industrial Arts Club, Baking Science Club and several intramural teams.

Sweetheart Alida Tomlinson of Gamma Phi Beta led the cheering at intramural events, and Phi Tau's were proud of their stars on the diving and baseball teams.

A visit from the National President on Founder's Day in March marked a successful year.

Phi Tau is proud of: Phi Tau Blood Bank, Carnation Ball, Little 500 Pit Decorations, "Neophyte Jack", "Little Susie", and Mother Gwynne.

PI KAPPA ALPHA / DELTA LAMBDA

PI KAPPA ALPHA

The Pikes took on the "forward look" this year, and won the Homecoming house decorations with a guided missile aimed straight for VPI. And who can say they aren't versatile—among other things, they boast the Ohio State YoYo Champion!

Moving in the new house was an undeniable thrill. And think how nice it will be when there's heat in the West Wing.

Pikes On Campus include members of Kappa Kappa Psi, APO, KAM, Baseball team, Cheerleader Don Chamberlain, and Circus Boy Bob Jordan.

Sweetheart Rachel Caldwell Bennet reigns for her second year—a tribute to a great girl.

The annual Christmas Party for underprivileged children with the Thetas proved successful. Other worthwhile projects include a basketball game with the inmates of FCI, and Beauchamp's Baby-Sitting Service for married brothers.

Names we've heard: Matress-back Collins . . . The Miami toasters . . . Herr Kitten . . . Woy . . . Chamberlain, the Faux Pas Kid . . . the Who's Who mystery man.

PI KAPPA PHI

Carusos all, the Pi Kap's won first place in the Campus Sing competition. Their memorable serenades delighted many a co-ed, and the Pi Kap's are fast becoming known as the "singing fraternity." Other awards have been first place in the Homecoming Skit contest, and second place in the house decorations competition, with the outer space theme, and slogan: "Everybody, but everybody, watches the Seminoles." The pledge class did its share, as Phi Kappa Phi was picked as the fraternity with the most pledges making over a 3.5 average (One, is the grand total!)

Paula Parsons was the Pi Kap candidate, and later IFC Queen. Doxie O'Neil has reigned throughout '57-'58 as Pi Kap Rose Queen.

APO, Alpha Council, Kappa Kappa Psi, Sigma Delta Phi, Phi Alpha Omega, Los Picaros, and several other campus organizations claim Pi Kap's as hard working members.

Have you met: the lovely new housemother, Mrs. Mable Furth?

Have you seen: The animal . . . Cornstick . . . Watermelon . . . Snake . . . Moneybags . . . Mickey Mouse . . . Zygote? Or, by any chance, one 250 lb. bell, missing since Hallowe'en?

Which is the only fraternity on campus with two houses? Pi Kappa Phi!

SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON

Leo's Lads teamed with the Thetas at Homecoming to make an elaborate float depicting the theme "Let's Enslave VPI". Somebody goofed—come parade time, the float couldn't get out of the drive way. Arriving too late for the judging, the float nevertheless made an impressive display. The house decorations, "FSU Railroads VPI" took third place, however.

Only one penny per vote. . . . SAE's sponsor the Miss Campus Chest contest to raise money for the Campus Chest Fund. Co-eds compete for the title by raising votes, hence money, for charity. The SAE Blood Bank, and the party with Zeta Tau Alpha at Christmas for needy children are further examples of worthwhile projects.

Miss Judy Dekle was chosen SAE Sweetheart at the annual dance in the fall—another social success was the weekend in May. Liz Armes, princess on the Homecoming court, was sponsored by SAE.

Leo makes his name heard on Campus. . . .Senior Class Veep and Distinguished Military Cadet, Bill Roche; Assistant to the President of the Student Body, Ronnie Blue; Phil Hunt, shortstop for Varsity baseball and Bobby Nellums, football star. Also active members of Arnold Air Society, Scabbard and Blade, Alpha Council, Sabre Flight, ODK, Senate, and various honoraries.

SIGMA CHI / EPSILON ZETA

SIGMA CHI

Hey, Sigs! How are you fixed for a house????

Though they scattered to the four winds when the house was condemned, the Sigma Chi's managed to stay together in spirit, and chalked up a worthwhile year. Six members of Gold Key, including the president; four members of ODK; several Who's Who's members; three senators; Attorney General and Secretary of Organizations show the Sigs' interest in politics. Sweetheart Linda Rollins, a Theta, led the cheering at most of the intramural games; Sigma Chi was prominent in track, basketball, football, gymnastics, and swimming.

FSU's answer to the Olympic Games, The Sigma Chi Derby, was held in the fall. All sixteen sororities took part in the games of skill and intelligence (?); and AOPi emerged victorious.

The parties with different sororities proved to be unusually successful, in particular, the Tri Delt, KD, and Halloween Party with the Thetas which featured the House of Horrors. Founders' Day was celebrated on March 17 with a traditional banquet, and the social season culminated with Sigma Chi weekend in the spring.

In closing, we present: The Mau Mau Raiders. . . .The Milk Runs. . . .Mighty Mouse. . . ."Twas the Night before Christmas". . .

SIGMA NU

Fall of '57 found the Sigma Nu's in their new house on Call Street, and second semester saw the completion of the addition. With their new headquarters, the brothers were able to hold great parties, and sponsor a healthy FSU spirit.

The first All American Baseball player in FSU's history is Sigma Nu's Dick Howser, also a member of Gold Key. Other Sig's in the spotlight are President of the Frosh, Bruce Brown and Sophomore Class Secretary Dennis Smith.

Crew necks, regimental stripes, Bermudas, trench coats, and grey flannels assembled at the Sigma Nu House in the fall for FSU's first "Ivy League" party. Guests cooked over an outdoor grill and compared notes on the latest in fashion news from our Ivy brothers up North. The party at Homecoming was a winner in any language, and the annual White Star weekend in the spring, complete with formal banquet, dance, coast party and steak fry rounded up the social calendar.

The fall semester started off with a complete redecoration of the interior of the "Old Homestead." The Frat-house now boasts a painting of the coat of arms presented to the chapter by District Governor Rogers. The "fraternity with a heart" initiated the annual Hell's-A-Poppin' party and did it pop! A floor show by Jim Brooks included some original songs plus many hit tunes.

The annual Queen of Diamonds Dance, given by the pledges in December was a huge success—the pledges are now known as the "pole painting pledges." (guess why)

Highlight of the spring semester was the weekend, starting off with a barn dance at Silver Lake and the Queen of Hearts Ball the following night. Alumni present at the ball included John M. Welch, and Merrill P. Barber. Senator Barber further honored the Sig Eps by receiving the guests. The finale of the big weekend was a skiing party at the coast. Barbara Krogland lent charm and beauty to the entire weekend as Queen of Hearts.

Floyd Widdon, of Tallahassee and Max Rieves, Counselor of Magnolia Hall, were both initiated as honorary members of Sigma Phi Epsilon.

TEP's social calendar is the biggest yet. Beginning with several successful open-houses, the TEP's swung onto the social band wagon with a "Down on the Farm" party and a "Greenwich Village Gathering." The highlight was the annual weekend, featuring the Lavender Ball.

Howard Levy represents TEP on the FSU tennis team, and Lennie Levy on the football team. Larry Block is sports editor of the Flambeau, an example of TEP's contribution to campus life.

TEP's are trying for "cleanest on campus" . . . "NO SWEAT."

When Larry says "too much!" he means "more!"

"All right, Meatball, back to work."

And our own Charlie Brown and Co. exclaim "Good Grief!"

Jack—how do you spell "Well?"

The second week without "Bab-O."

But the boys exclaim "That's ma presidunt." Meanwhile, the "presidunt" is busy writing another letter (So where's the answer?)

The Phantom strikes again!

"T-Express leaving in five minutes."

Jack . . . "Well, I went with this gal once, and . . ."

THETA CHI / GAMMA RHO

THETA CHI

Homecoming found the Theta Chi's out in full force, working together and thinking hard. The result: first place float, voted most original by the judges.

Individually, as well as collectively, Theta Chi has left its mark on FSU: Don Ramsden, Chairman of Men's Judiciary; Dick Grofford, Secretary of Student Welfare; members of Pershing Rifles, Gold Key, Alpha Council, Scullions, Alpha Delta Sigma, Phi Eta Sigma, Cavaliers, Senate, Board of Publications, and the Undersecretary of Finance are all Theta Chi's.

The swimming team is made up largely of Theta Chi's—seven swimmers and two coaches. Track, also, relies on Mike Conley, Charlie Nye, Tom Reeny, Charlie Drago, and coach Ken Segner.

"Sputnik Fever" invaded the chapter, and prompted the outer space party in the fall with the Thetas. Theta Chi weekend in the spring saw Sweetheart Bobbie Plumer relinquish her title as Dream Girl to the new sweetheart.

"Let every good brother now join in the song . . .
VIVE LA THETA CHI!"

Mortified

To the strains of "eii, eii, we're Mortified", members of this organization are selected each spring. The bases of membership are service, character, spirit, activities and leadership. Only the scholarship requirement is lacking, hence the Mortified pin in the shape of a dunce cap.

This year, Barbara Burkhardt, Czar and only officer of the group, lead the elite membership in maintaining the traditional activities of spontaneous parties and absolutely no meetings.

Rivalry with Mortarboard is spirited and fostered by the tradition of tapping one less member in order to make itself the more exclusive organization.

Phi Mu Alpha

Music Honorary for Men

Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, the men's music fraternity on campus, is devoted to furthering the cause of good music. Working toward this goal from all angles, a wide variety of musical functions were employed, some traditional and some new this year. Together with Sigma Alpha Iota, Sinfornia sponsored the Annual Campus Sing, and started the year with formal receptions for visiting performers on the Artist Series programs. Evening concerts featuring the works of American composers and of FSU student and faculty composers were also sponsored.

On the informal side, a series of Sunday afternoon Coffee Concerts was begun, which featured chamber music of all types in a relatively authentic setting, the Longmire Lounge.

The wave of interest in part singing that grips the FSU campus every spring is largely due to the fact the Sigma Alpha Iota sponsors, with Phi Mu Alpha, the Annual Campus Sing. This project neatly corresponds with one of SAI's main objectives—promoting music on campus; other objectives are to provide an organization for professionally-minded women in the field of music and for furthering their professional aims.

On the social side, Sigma Alpha Iota sponsors receptions, musicales, rush parties for prospective members and an annual spaghetti supper.

Guest speakers highlighted the meetings of the American Society for Public Administration this year. Among those who treated the various fields of public administration were Mallory Horne, Leon County Representative to the State Legislature, who spoke on revision of the State Constitution, and Herschell Snuggs, City Manager of Thomasville, who treated the profession of city management. The meetings were followed by question and answer periods during which members of the ASPA could obtain specific information from men experienced in their fields.

A study in forms develops in a vase collection from the University Museum.

University Museum and Gallery

Outstanding exhibitions in art and anthropology are featured each year by the University Museum and Gallery above the Seminole Club. This year, displays ranged from ceramics and the Western Hemisphere cultures to a showing of Dutch masterpieces from the Ringling Collection and an exhibit of paintings produced by artists in the Tallahassee area. Other art shows included the works of the art faculty, art students and sketches of Toulouse-Lautrec.

The Western Hemisphere, subject of one of the exhibits, catches the attention of Eleanor Sweatt.

Student Artist Series

Playing to SRO for two performances during the same evening, the Four Freshmen delighted both audiences with their close harmony and easy going style. Their appearance was made possible by the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity, which donated the proceeds of the concert as their annual charity project.

Fred Waring, Director of the Pennsylvanians

Under the Student Artist Series program, Student Government brought Fred Waring and the Pennsylvanians to FSU as the first booking in the series. Waring and his group, familiar favorites to everyone, presented a program designed to suit almost every musical taste, in which the numbers ranged from "Christmas Was Made for Children" to the ever-impressive "Old Man River."

But, ma'm, you're not allowed in the locker room.

University Artist Series

"Damn Yankees", the Broadway musical comedy hit appeared as a spring listing in the Artist Series presentations. Featuring a devilish "Lola" and a Faustian baseball team, the show entertained students, faculty and townspeople with such top songs as "You've Got to Have Heart", "Whatever Lola Wants" and "Shoeless Joe from Hannibal, Mo."

Broadway seemed to have a fascination for Tallahassee this year, as another New York hit, Maurice Evan's "No Time for Sergeants" was presented. The antics of a hillbilly in military life kept the audience in a state of mirth as Rex Everhart, Tucker Ashworth and Howard Freeman paced the series of improbable, but delightful, events.

Cigars, cigarettes, weekend passes. The cast of "No Time for Sergeants" seems to be off limits.

Tyrone Power co-starred with Faye Emerson in Shaw's "Back to Methuselah."

A "parable in comedy", George Bernard Shaw's "Back to Methuselah" provided an entertaining evening for a sold-out house. The witty lines, original sets and the acting of Tyrone Power, Faye Emerson and Arthur Treacher highlighted an enjoyable evening for the crowd at Westcott Auditorium.

Having satisfied the drama fans, the Artist Series took note of FSU music lovers and scheduled Paul Paray and the Detroit Symphony Orchestra for a spring performance. The program featured selections from Debussy, Mendelssohn and Wagner under the deft direction of maestro Paray.

Who played on that rest? Paul Paray conducts the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

Hey, wait a minute, Brutus. You've got the wrong play. Ron McCall and Tom Applegard in a scene from "Caesar and Cleopatra."

Among the experimental series of the speech productions was George Bernard Shaw's satire "Caesar and Cleopatra". The lead roles were taken by Ron McCall and Kay Cranford, while Dr. Brooks directed the play's imaginative portrayal of the elderly Caesar's romantic inclinations toward Princess Cleo.

Other productions in this series included Jean Paul Sarte's "No Exit", a witty and thought-provoking picture of hell, as well as T. S. Eliot's "Murder in the Cathedral".

Beauty And The Beast

"Where did you go?" "Out". "What did you do?" "Nothing."

"The Sleeping Beauty", produced as the Speech Department's annual children's play, succeeded in attracting about as many grown-ups as it did members of the lollipop set. Marlene Matouk, Sue Coffery, Redgy Ivory and Phil Johnson enchanted their audience with a good supply of magic spells, properly horrifying witches and a Prince and Princess straight from Fantasy-land.

The fairy tale, directed by Richard Fallon, proved so appealing to its pint-sized audience that it was later presented over television.

Back on the adult level, other dramas staged during the year included Tennessee William's "Glass Menagerie", "The Rainmaker" and "The Alchemist."

Sigma Chi Derby

While other sororities wilted in the mayhem, the rose of Alpha Omicron Pi out-fought, out-ran and out-scrambled its competitors to emerge dusty and bruised, but victorious in the Sigma Chi Derby.

The climax of the day came during the final "secret event" which was scheduled to be a greased pig chase, participated in by representatives of sixteen sororities. The pig, however, played it cool, and with a bit of strategy turned it into a sorority-girl chase, which culminated in his biting the Tri-Delt entry. All ended well, however, and it is reported that the uncooperative animal wound up as ham sandwiches shortly thereafter.

Finishing out a perfect day for the AO Pi's, Rita Nelms, was named Sigma Chi Derby Queen, with Cynthia Tichenor, Pi Beta Phi, and Frances Bell, Zeta Tau Alpha selected as her court.

Slave Auction

Arguing Constitutional Law, reluctant Delta Tau Delta pledges were nevertheless auctioned off to the highest bidder in the name of charity. Unfortunately for the Delt slaves, their masters, not familiar with the concept, straightway set them to an assortment of unpleasant tasks for the afternoon, which included washing cars, waiting on tables (tips split 50-50) and serenading from, of all things, a tree top.

The project proved successful to all concerned, however, with clean cars for the masters, freedom for the slaves, and a liberal donation to charity on the part of the Delts.

Well, all right, seventy five.

Heh! I'm gonna get me one, too.

Oh boy! I got him!

Officials and dignitaries lead off in the parade down College Avenue.

Homecoming

Plans for Homecoming started early this year, with Seminoles studying up on artwork and engineering in preparation for the house decorations and the annual parade that signals the start of the festivities on Friday afternoon. The work paid off for the Zeta Tau Alpha's, whose house decorations in the form of a dunking duck took first place. In the float division, the Phi Delta Theta entry, pulled by the members in slave costume, featured an Egyptian theme and barged into first place with the motto "FSU reigns the Victor."

Pow Wow

In the Friday night Pow Wow the Alpha Xi Delta's took first place among the sorority skits with their masterful presentation of "Hatlo's Inferno." For the fraternities, the Pi Kappa Phi's took Seminole fans back to the good old days with a contrast of "Our University — Then and Now."

Varsity Debate

Chalking up a successful year, the FSU Varsity Debate team traveled throughout the southeast talking their way into an armload of trophies and medals.

In the Tau Kappa Alpha national debate honorary's Golden Anniversary Convention, FSU proved its prowess to the Lexington, Kentucky, audience. The debate tourney in Carelton, Georgia, was almost a clean sweep for the Seminoles as they won four out of five of the tournament's top honors—best school, best affirmative and negative teams, and best negative speaker.

On the home front, Arnold Greenfield took first place in oratory at the ninth annual FSU invitational tourney. Rosa Castro and Melvin Peters were acclaimed superior debators.

At the Magnolia Tournament, L. A. Hester was named best debator and rated superior in oratory, while Graham Stikelether was chosen as superor after after dinner speaker.

Highlights of the year were the ninth annual international debate, featurink two students from Glasgow University, Scotland, on the subject of Sputniks; and the traditional intramural tournament.

Trio handbalancing stars Jack Miles, Joe Taylor and Chet Whitten pull a stunt out of their bag of tricks.

"Headlines", the title of this year's Gymkana production, was built around a newspaper theme. Sketches included the FSU gym team as the "sports section" working out on the uneven parallel bars; a skeleton dance represented the obituary column, the Tallahassee Tumbling Tots covered the opening of a new playground for "city news" and a dance routine entitled "Pick Up" represented the crime section.

Candidates for the title of Miss Gymkana filled in as the society page, and a feature in this section was the trampoline routine "Conrad Bilton Throws a Party", starring Beverly Cude, Don Preisser and Jim Jackson.

The highlight of the evening was the crowning of Nan Chamberlin as Miss Gymkana for 1957. Included in the court were Marilyn Harris, Peggy Trensch, Willou Copeland, Jenny Zipperer, and Penny Pickles.

Early in May each year, FSU is seized with the Circus fever—"Flying High", the University's all-student circus, traditionally holds its three night stand in Tallahassee in Doak Campbell Stadium during the first weekend in May.

Circus

This year, Circus was officially dubbed "Spring Homecoming" and parents and alumni were invited to attend the performances. The crowd in Campbell Stadium was treated to some spectacular performances in the form of trapeze acts, high wire routines, and slack wire balancing. In addition, there were the traditional clowns; Circusettes, a precision dance team; the Spanish web acts; and the Circus Band.

Under the direction of Coaches Jack Haskins and Jim DeCosmo, FSU's "Flying High" has gained national recognition. Each year the show goes on tour through the state, and this year was featured on the "Arlene Francis Show" on a national TV hook-up.

The University Symphony presented four concerts during the year, two of which featured student soloists. The soloists, chosen from talented senior music majors and music students working toward their Masters degrees, were Calvin Hasbrouch, Beverly Brown, Dolores Casio and Christine Bryan.

The Symphony also works with the music school in that candidates for the Doctor of Music and Piano Literature degree present their concertos in conjunction with the Symphony. Programs in this field were presented by Katherine Smith and Paul Parmelee.

Highlighting the year was the Symphony's participation in the Artist Series Production of "Amahl and the Night Visitors" and a trip to Albany, Georgia, under the sponsorship of the Albany Music Club.

The Marching Chiefs

Getting the genuine "low down" on Dixieland jazz, the Marching Chiefs spent a weekend in New Orleans after their trip to Mississippi Southern with the Seminoles' football team. The Chiefs also journeyed to Tampa this year, to play for the game between FSU and Tampa University.

Under the direction of Manley Whitcomb and Robert Braunagel, the Band treated halftime fans to a series of original and intricate maneuvers, as well as the best in band music.

Comprised of some one hundred and twenty students, the Marching Chiefs also feature special attractions such as the Majorette Corps, with Head Majorette Jackie Haley; the Flying Seminoles, Ted Daniels and Bea Carroll; and Drum Major Terry Johnson.

Faced with the problem of no vetern quarterback, Nugent put into practice his old theory of using the best backfield man for the signal calling job. Turning to Bobby Renn, FSU's leading ground gainer at halfback in 1956, Nugent groomed him for the task.

Although Renn performed adequately despite his inexperience, his absence at halfback left a gap which was felt the rest of the season.

Lack of reserve power caused Coach Tom Nugent many gray hairs this year as the Florida State football team fell to its first losing season in five years — the only one under Coach Nugent.

Nugent's inventions, such as the "I" formation, the double quarterback, and the typewriter huddle, as well as other new ideas failed to impress such foes as Auburn, Miami, N. C. State, and other teams who beat the Seminoles and almost pushed them back into the ranks of the small colleges.

FSU could field one good squad that could mix with any team in the country for one half. The second half would be another story, however, with the sophomore-led reserves being outclassed by their more experienced opponents.

Cheerleaders Add Spirit

Striking the match to FSU's spirited student body is the cheerleading squad's year-round job. The six-fold force is responsible for igniting pep and enthusiasm at all events where grandstand participation is essential. They supply cheering support at all football games and occasionally lead pep rallies to liven school spirit. When possible, the squad follows the football team for its games out of town. Silent Seminole fans stand for the National Anthem before the opener with Furman.

Tribe Blows Out 'Canes 27-7

Looking a little worse for wear, a Furman defender slows dawn Billy Weaver.

16,000 curious Seminole fans poured into Campbell Stadium for a look at the Furman opener and to see whether Bobby Renn, newly shifted from halfback to quarterback, would be able to carry the FSU offense through a stiff schedule.

Apparent fears were soon squelched as Renn rolled out on the first play and scampered 34 yards to the end zone before the play was called back by a penalty.

FSU scored three times in the second quarter with Renn scoring from the one, Ted Rodrique pitching to Clare Bagnall from the 33, and Nellums recovering a Hurricane fumble in the end zone.

The game was mostly a one-sided affair, as Furman scored its only touchdown on a pass play to make the final score 27-7.

Allard too much for Seminoles, 20-7

Halfback Bobby Renn takes time out for a necessary chore before the game.

Someone forgot to tell Boston College's Don Allard that FSU was the favorite going into the Saturday afternoon clash. Completing 12 of 18 passes, Allard led his Eagles to a convincing 20-7 trouncing over the Tribe before 16,000 triumphant fans at Alumni Field in Boston.

The Tribe started the game with the recovery of a BC fumble on the opening kickoff on the twenty-four yard line. After four plays FSU was still on the 24. Allard then took charge, completing four straight passes as BC moved 82 yards in 12 plays, to take a lead which was never threatened.

After two more touchdowns directed by Allard, with the score 20-0, sub quarterback Ted Rodrique from nearby Lynn, Massachusettes averted an FSU shutout when he hit Captain Ron Schomburger with a pass from the 23 yard line for the Tribes only score.

FSU's only score came on a fourth-and-one situation on the Villanova 14, when quarterback Jerry Henderson threw a pass to end Ron Schomburger in the end zone.

Moving in on Dick Hunter is FSU's Troy Barnes as the Tribe kept the Wolfpack bottled up all night.

It was big Dick Christy's night as the 191 pound first team All American from N. C. State came out of nowhere with 16 seconds remaining in the half to grab a 20 yard pass from teammate Ernie Driscoll and add twenty more yards of his own to give State a 7-0 victory over the game Seminoles.

FSU more than held their own against the 10th nationally ranked team, holding the Wolfpack to 117 yards on the ground and a .500 percentage through the air. The Tribe's Bobby Renn kept FSU in the game time after time with punts that went 215 vards in 4 tries. with two of them rolling dead on the 2 foot line and the 3 yard stripe. Renn emerged from the game as the nation's fourth best punter.

Both Renn and bantam guard Al Ulmer were chosen backfield and lineman of the week, respectively, in Florida for their efforts in the game.

Nellums, a converted end from Pensacola, gained 72 yards from scrimmage, a feat not many Seminole fullbacks have been able to accomplish in recent years as the Tribe set a new school single game record of 383 yards rushing.

Bobby Renn started the Seminole scoring spree with a roll-out play that went 63 yards before he stepped into the end zone. Nellums scored twice, once from the one and added a second on a pitchout from Ted Rodrique.

Stan Dobosz and sophomore Pappy Rozman added the other two touchdowns as the Tribe handed the Wildcats a 34-7 trouncing to bounce back into the win column after three consecutive defeats.

Striking swiftly and suddenly for two touchdowns in the second quarter and a final tally in the third period, Florida State upended Virginia Tech 20-7 before 18,556 students and alumni, who had come to view FSU's tenth homecoming football game.

Soph halfback Fred Pickard jumped into the spotlight as he set a new FSU record for the longest run from scrimmage. The 80 yard dash came as the final touchdown of the game and gave 160 pound Pickard a total of 135 yards for the day.

Center George Boyer scored the first touchdown of his career as he recovered a VPI fumble in the end zone just nine seconds after Renn completed a 49 yard pass play to Schomburger for the Tribe's first score of the day.

VPI's only score came in the second period after a first down on State's six yard stripe. On fourth down fullback Bob Connor plunged over from the one foot marker.

F. S. U. Falters as Miami Wins 40-13

To a disappointing and disappointed turnout of 15,712 Seminole partisans, it all seemed rather unreal. They saw the Seminoles forge scoring threats in Miami territory the first two times they got the ball. They saw the scoreboard at halftime posted 7-6 in FSU's favor.

Then they saw Miami uncork a sweeping last-half wallop that left FSU dazed and beaten.

Most incredible of all was Fran Curci, the little Miami sophomore quarterback who personally accounted for 56 yards on 17 runs, completed six of 12 passes for 76 more and two touchdowns.

Miami rolled up 336 yards rushing, 276 of it in the second half.

FSU's first score came on Bob Nellum's 1-yard push after a 66 yard drive and on Joe Major's 45-yard pass to Bill Kimber in the last quarter. Al Ulmer was the line star of the day as he made 15 tackles, six more than any other player on either team.

Almost fumbling, Fullback Bob Nellums dives over the Miami goal to put the Seminoles briefly in the lead.

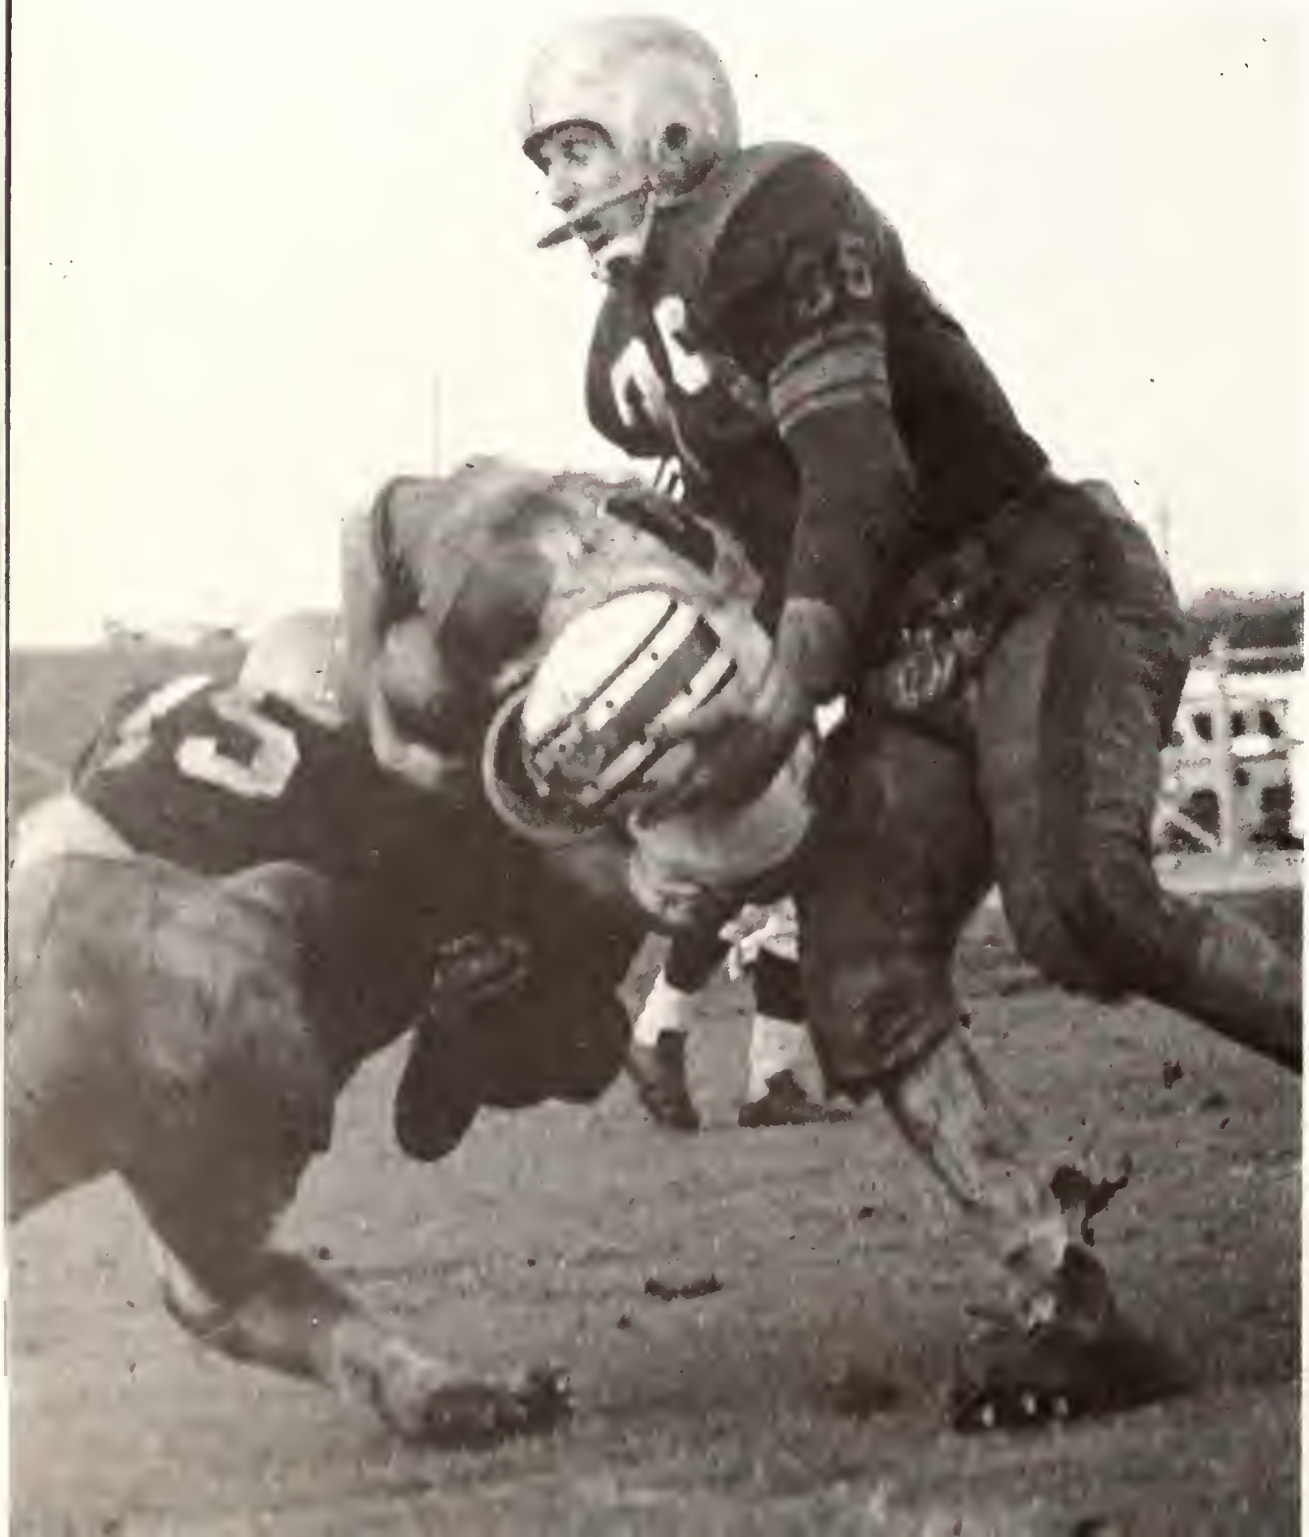
No. 1 Team Tops Seminoles



Running into the awaiting arms of Bobby Renn and Bob Nellums, an Auburn runner is stopped in his tracks.

Auburn Fullback Billy Ackins crashes into the center of the Seminole line in the second half as the Tribe line tightens and stops the Tiger offence.

Majors sets for the hondoff in Nugent's famed "I" formation.

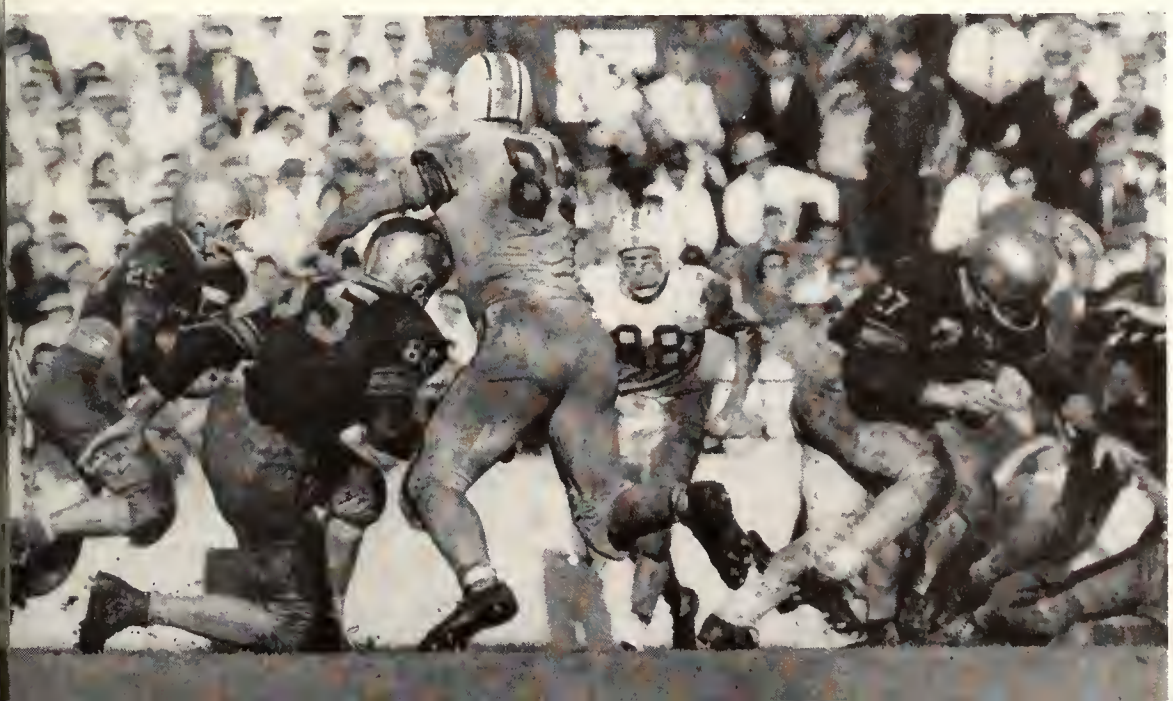
Scoring twice in the first five minutes and three times in the first quarter, Auburn showed the Seminoles in a convincing fashion why it was ranked No. 1 team in the nation.

The second half looked like a different game, however, as the Seminoles held the Tigers to five first downs while picking up a touchdown on a 34 yard pass play from Majors to Kimber to notch one of the few touchdowns the best defensive unit in the country had scored against them during the season.

Sophomore Majors came into his own as he completed 12 of 22 passes while bantam Fred Pickard emerged as the Tribe's leading ground gainer with 27 hard earned yards.

Auburn caught Majors on a safety with 10 seconds remaining in the game to make the final score 29-7.

Fred Pickard blasts over center picking up a few yards against the stobborn Auburn defenders.



Auburn Quarterback Lloyd Nixon gets pulled down from behind by FSU's Al Ulmer.

Bobby Renn looks dejected as the Southerners roll to their second score.

Cooch Nugent gives instructions to the alternating unit as they impatiently wait to get into the game.

Southern Blanks F. S. U. On Rally

Cooperating in making Mississippi Southern's homecoming celebration a success, FSU got hit for two touchdowns within four minutes in the second quarter and another in the final period to suffer a 20-0 loss which assured the Tribe of their first losing season in five years.

The Seminoles had a scoring opportunity in the opening period as they drove to the four yard line behind the passing of Bobby Renn and the running of Stan Dobosz, but in four plays got only to the one, and FSU's chances for a score were through for the day.

Southern opened the scoring with a 57 yard jaunt by Bobby Lance mid-way in the second quarter, and seven plays later added another after Joe Majors fumbled on his own 23. Carries by Lance and Bo Dickinson moved the ball over and put the Rebels in front 13-0. Southern's final touchdown came as reserve halfback Bud Sckul took it over from the one.

Tribe Rolls Over Tampa in Finale

There wasn't quite enough of 245 pound Fred Cason to spread over Phillips Field in Tampa as State ground out a 21-7 victory over the University of Tampa to mark the end of the Seminoles first losing season under Coach Tom Nugent.

A firmly partisan crowd of 12,000, shivering in high winds and 40 degree weather, saw Cason score twice and run for 127 yards in 19 tries in a desperate effort to keep up with the Seminoles' powerful running attack.

Junior guard Bob Fountain helped set a new school record with a fourth quarter recovery of a fumble to mark the 26th of the season and a new record.

It was a long, hard year for the fighting Seminoles.

Freshmen Fall to Miami in Only Loss

Despite losing their unbeaten string in college competition, Coach Paul Odom's Baby Seminole's completely dominated their opponents statistically this season.

In downing Georgia Military, South Carolina, South Georgia, and Mississippi Southern, the Tribe grounded out 1,234 yards, more than twice their opponents', and scored 23 times in their five games.

The Freshmen dropped a 21-7 decision to the Miami yearlings in the final game of their five-game season, their first loss in two years in college competition.

Until the Baby Hurricanes gained more than 400 yards in the final, opposing teams had averaged only 100 yards total offense a game against the rugged FSU frosh defense.

Coach Bud Kennedy

At the beginning of this year, with only one letterman starter returning on the FSU basketball team, Coach Bud Kennedy was pondering whether inexperienced ball players plus junior college graduates would equal a successful ball club. He soon found out.

Boasting only two seniors of the eleven man squad, the Seminole hoopsters raised many eyebrows as they conquered two of their first three opponents. The white cloud soon broke as the Tribe dropped five quick games in a row on an extensive road trip through the South.

That, suddenly, became the sad fate of the basketball team this season. In fourteen games on the road, the Seminoles managed to win only a single game against Georgia, while meeting some of the best quintets in the nation including the nation's number one ranked team, West Virginia, and the highest scoring squad in the country, Marshall College.

At home the Tribe did somewhat better, winning over half their contests.

The prospects for the coming season look more promising as only senior forward Larry Strom and reserve Tom Garcia depart with graduation.

Back to pace the Tribe will be high scorer Burt Deckel; Jim Liteky, and Hugh Durham.

Tankers Have Good Season

"Bim" Stults, Head Swimming Coach

The 1958 tankers splashed to six school records and four new pool standards on their way to the most successful swim season since 1955.

Paul Hammond, Joel Jacobs, and Ken Abbott, the latter two seniors, set the major part of the records with Hammond passing a five year school and pool mark in the 200 yard freestyle, Jacobs establishing a new time in the 200 yard breaststroke and Abbott bettering both the 50 and 100 marks.

Abbott's record breaking effort of 51.3 in the 100 freestyle may win him ranking as an All American swimmer, says Coach "Bim" Stults, head mentor of the FSU mermen since 1951.

On one road trip through the Midwest, the tankers met and won five straight meets, holding their nearest opponents to no more than two first places out of ten.

Dr. Hartly Price, Gymnastics Coach.

Gymnastics

Nationally known among the most outstanding gymnastics coaches in the country, Dr. Hartley Price was selected by the government to conduct a gymnastic clinic in India for the coming year to foster international relations and at the same time inspire the development of gymnastics in that country.

Dr. Price has led FSU to five national titles in the past six years. His teams swept the NCAA and NAAU in 1951, repeated as the NCAA team champions in 1952 after being edged out of a second successive AAU title. In 1954, FSU won the AAU title and again in 1955.

In addition, Price is credited with developing FSU's Olympic stars Bill Roetzhiem, Don Holder, Jack Miles and Rafael Lecuona.

As gymnastics coach at the University of Illinois in the 1930's, Price's teams won four NCAA championships and twice walked off with NAAU titles.

In 1949, Price was the recipient of a research award from the American Academy of Physical Education.

Since 1951, the Price-directed Seminole gymnastics team has never been left out of the top five in Collegiate or AAU competition.

Gymnasts Win Southern Intercollegiate

Lennart Malmlin, Stockholm, Sweden.

Former Swedish Olympic star Larry Malmlin and Brooklyn-born Chick Cicio led the Seminole gymnasts to their eighth consecutive Southern Intercollegiate crown this year.

The Tribe qymnasts also walked away with the Midwest Open Championships in Chicago, the Florida AAU and the Georgia AAU along with winning six dual meets to extend the Seminoles' victory streak to 25 straight meets over a six year period.

Most notable of the team's victories over this period was an upset over the touring Swedish Olympic Gymnastics squad; the only setback the Olympic team suffered on their U. S. jaunt.

Pacing the present team along with Malmlin and Cicio was Fernando Lecuona, brother of former FSU Olympic star Rafael Lecuona. Fernando, a sophomore, competed in the side horse and parallel events.

Senior Laird Anderson broke his old school record in the rope climb with a clocking of 3.9 and is expected to place in the top five in national competition as he has done for the past two years.

Cicio is the defending national champion in free exercise and is favored to capture the title again this year.

Other Seminole gymnasts expected to place in national competition this year are Don Prisser, Roger Webb, Bob Murray, Tom MacDonald, and Joe Gusic.

Freshmen who may travel to the NAAU championships in Los Angeles include Bill Beavers, Dave Carmolli, and Jack Ryder.

Golfers Boast Winning Team

Opening the 1958 campaign with only one loss in the past twenty-three matches and boasting a fourth place finish in the 1957 NCAA tournament, Coach Bill Odeneal found a record difficult to surpass as he took over the reins of the Golf squad.

Odeneal coached the volleyball team to two national championships in four years before the sport was dropped last year and he was named head mentor of the golfers.

Only four lettermen returned to pace the Tribe. They are former National quarterfinalist Bob Shave, 1957 All-Marine Corps champ, Mel Fleisher, Rem Noble, and Dave Morris.

A 13-match home schedule that includes meeting with five Southeastern Conference teams and two members of the Big Ten highlight Coach Keith Pitchford's tennis schedule.

The Seminole netters, winners of only five matches out of 16 last year, face another long, hard season against Florida, Georgia Tech, Mississippi State, Michigan State and Indiana in their 17 contests.

Junior Lex Hester figures to be Pitchford's No. 1 player and has Jim Maddock, Jim Berry, Frank Bryan, and Jackie Crew to back him up.

Coach Mike Long's thinclads face one of their most trying schedules in recent years as the cindermen travel to the Penn Relays in Philadelphia, the Coliseum Indoor Games in Montgomery, Ala., and the Kansas Relays in Lawrence, Kan.

The tracksters also face Furman, Florida, Miami and Roanoke in dual meets in addition to taking their annual jaunt to Gainesville for the Florida Relays.

In early season play, FSU finished second in the non-conference division of the Atlantic Coast Conference Indoor Championships.

Paced by four school record holders and a record breaking mile relay team, the track squad could possibly develop into one of Florida State's best.

First Team All-American Dick Howser, Shortstop.

Danny Litwhiler, Head Baseball Coach.

With a host of returning lettermen including first team All-American Dick Howser, Coach Danny Litwhiler optimistically looked toward the 1958 baseball season.

Sporting a 19-6 record last year, the team won the NCAA district tournament in Gastonia, N. C., and went on to the collegiate world series tourney in Omaha, Nebraska, where the Tribe baseballers finished behind the five best college baseball teams in the country.

The Seminoles may do even better this year with veterans returning in seven of nine positions and a host of freshmen joining the squad from the Frosh team which went undefeated in college competition.

Owen McCarron and Howser led the list of returnees. Howser won the batting title last year with a lusty .364 and McCarron headed the RBI department with 29.

Other lettermen included Don Axon, John Bristol, Tom Garcia, Fred Kenney, Riley Seevers, John Sheppard, and Frank Slusser.

CONTEXT

Snow transformed palm trees into magical white towers.

Some things were new and different.

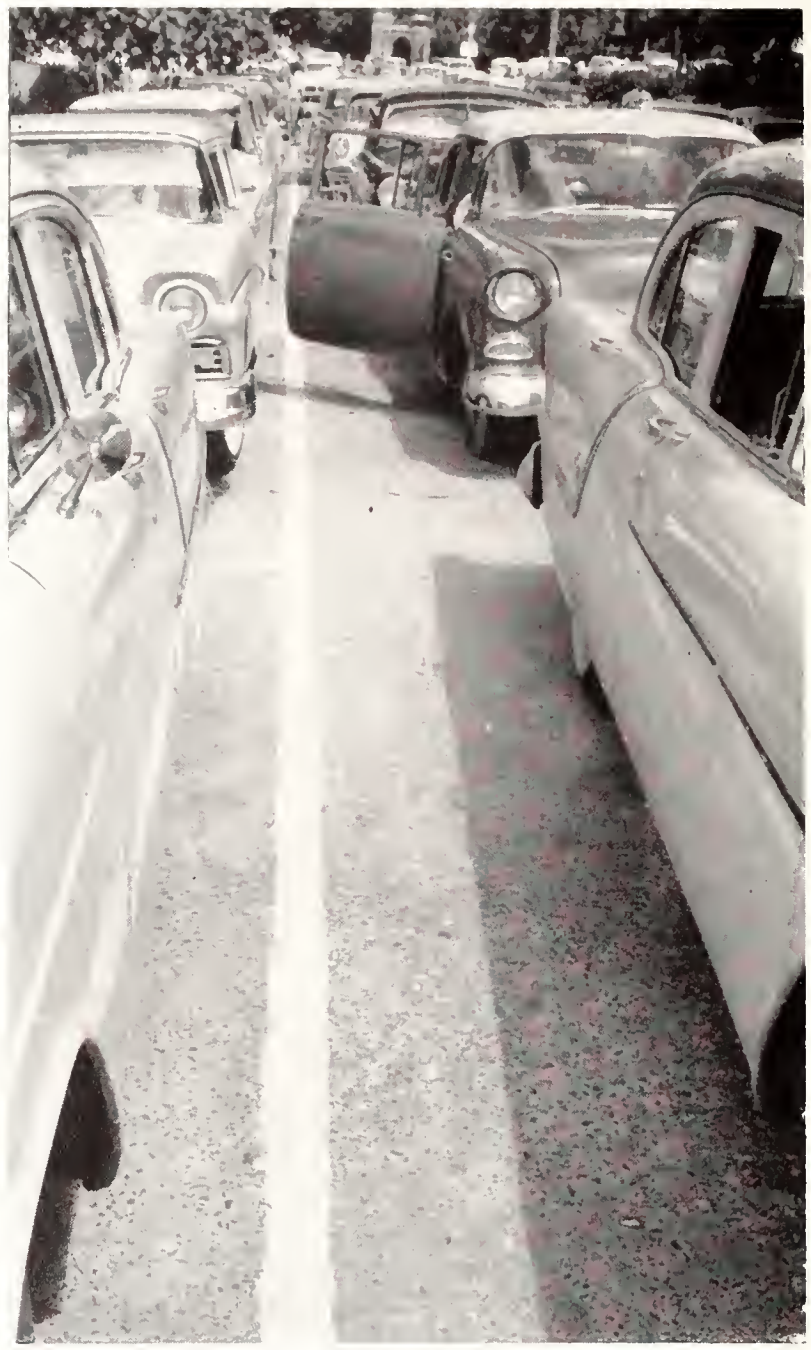
Decorum snapped as born and bred Floridians jubilantly wallowed in four inches of the white powder.

Unidentified early risers sought fame by being the first to leave their tracks in the sparkling cover.

..Snow!

Innumerable cameras produced photographs os proof that it really did snow in Tollohassee.

Some things stayed the same...



There was the perennial parking problem.

On the other hand, parking wasn't always a problem.

Formal rush brought out the best in everyone's manners.

The welter of new names and unfamiliar faces caused occasional merriment.

Sesious conversations regarding hometowns, majors and the weather were the order of the day.

Freshmen were subjected to a number of traditional ceremonies.

There were new faces . . .

"Rat" became an objectional word to some two thousand new students.

Adapting beautifully to their new classification as the "lowest form of life", three frosh blend voices in the "Alma Mater."

In familiar settings

Bridge games quickly became a vital part of dorm life.

More vital was the ritual of checking for phone calls.

Variations on conventional themes ...

The class of '75 mulls over the glitter and display of the homecoming parade.

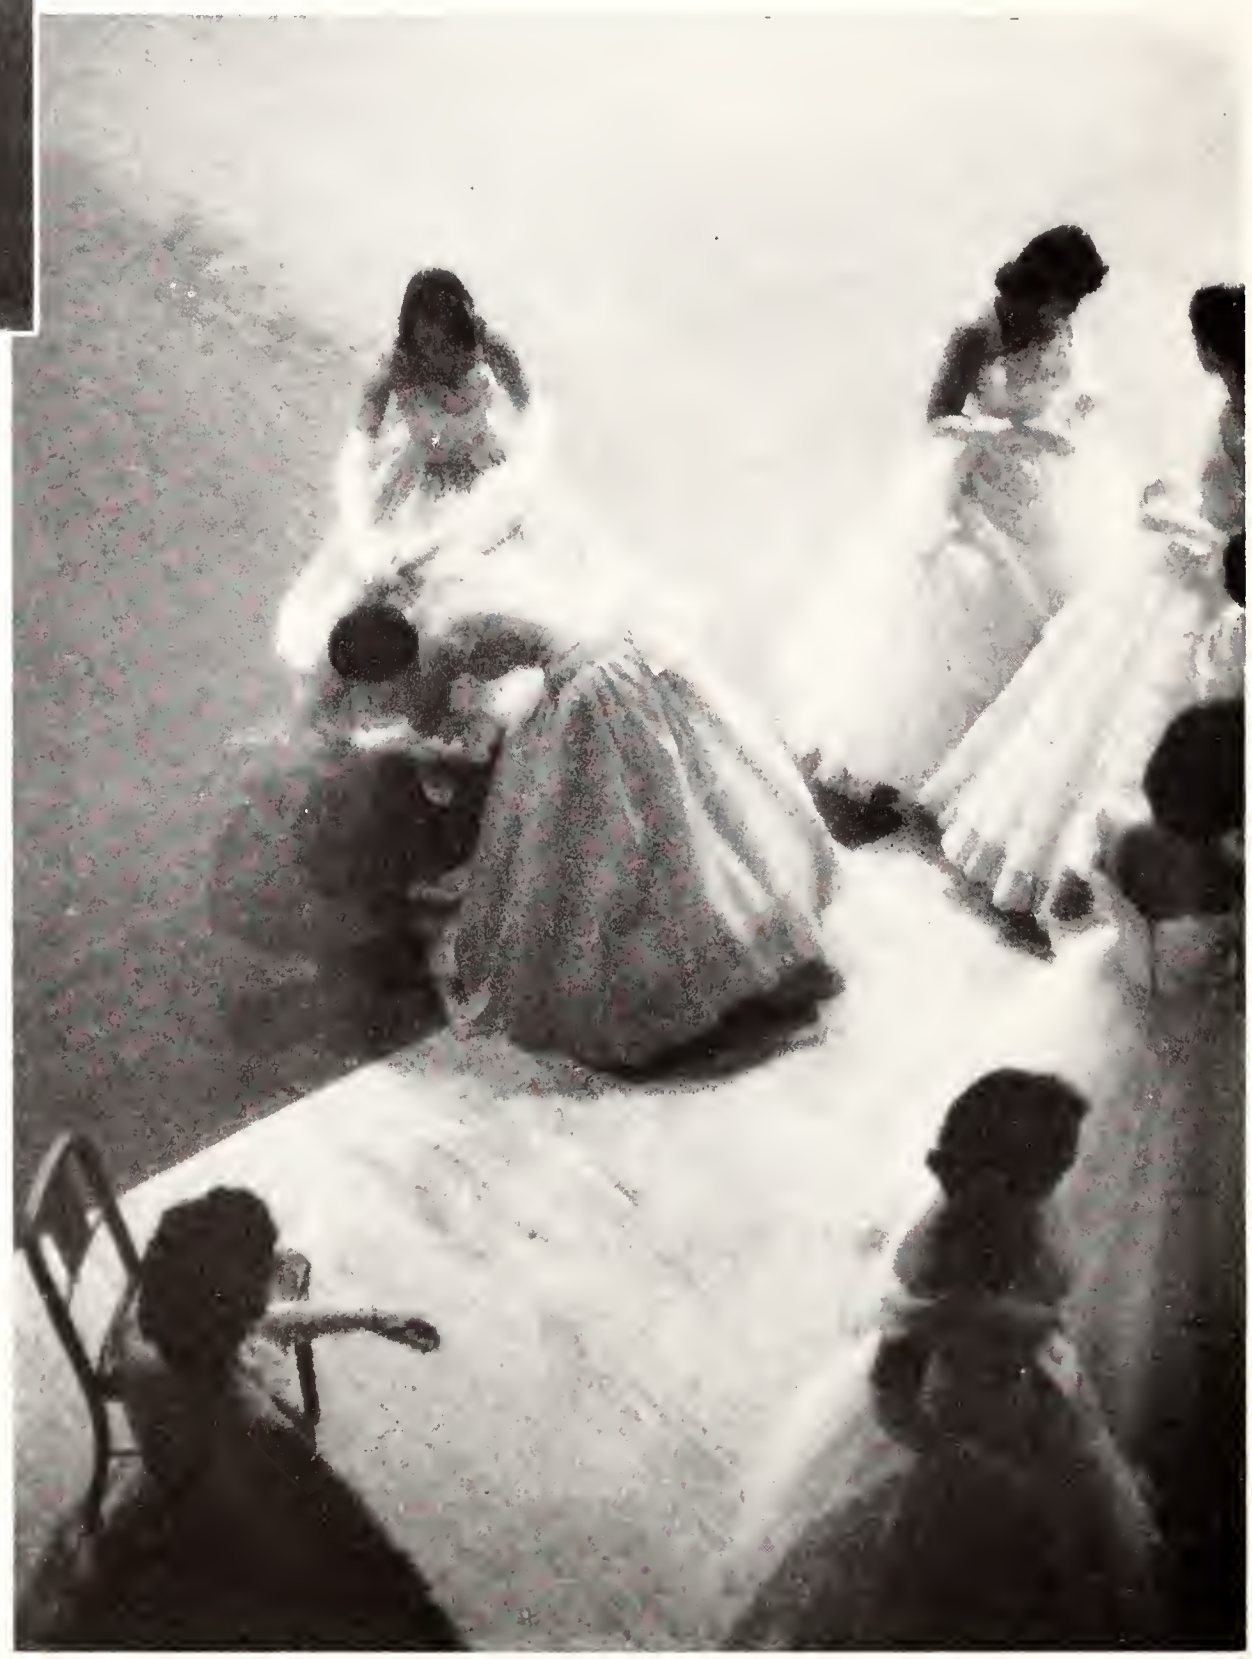
Roman style, this Seminole watches proceedings in an atmosphere of pure comfort.

A The familiar wail of ". . . but I need this for graduation!" indicates that registration time has returned.

And a variety of problems

As if money and women weren't enough trouble—the car has to break down, too!

People, Places Events ...



Hours of preparation preceed a few minutes' appearance before beauty contest judges.
